Hi Aaron... just clarifying, when I said once per route, I meant one intersection per route. In other words it can be signed both northbound and southbound.

Make sense?

Thanks!

2007 BILL

Regen

1 AN ACT to amend 86.195 (5) (a); and to create 86.195 (5) (a) 4. of the statutes;
2 relating to: attractions displayed on highway specific information signs.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law allows the Department of Transportation (DOT) to erect and maintain certain informational signs to assist motorists traveling along state highways. DOT may, with restrictions, authorize the erection and maintenance, on designated state highways, of specific information signs, which notify motorists that certain businesses located near a highway are available to provide motorist services in the category of gas, food, lodging, camping, or attraction. A motorist service generally must be located not more than three miles from the highway on which the specific information sign for the motorist service is erected except that, after May 8, 1990, if no business in the category of motorist service is available within this three-mile distance, a motorist service may be located not more than five miles from the highway on which the sign is erected.

Under this bill, a motorist service that is an attraction may be located not more than 30 miles from the highway on which the specific information sign for the motorist service is erected.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Please review the attached draft carefully to ensure that it is consistent with your intent.

I highly recommend having the attached draft reviewed by DOT to advise of its opinion whether created s. 86.195 (5) (a) 4. would be inconsistent with federal requirements and potentially jeopardize federal highway aid to the state.

You requested that I attempt to track ^{s.} Trans 200.06, Wis. Adm. Code, in preparing this draft. I have modeled a portion of s. 86.195 (4) (c) on Trans 200.06 (1) (h), with some modification.
