To: Rose, Laura
Subject: RE: Remedial Legislation -- Board on Developmental Disabilities

It's in my area, so I need to do it, Laura. However, with all the other stuff on my plate, I'm not sure I can get it done in time.

Hi Robin,

DOA wants remedial legislation to renumber the statutory reference for the newly created board for People with Developmental Disabilities, from 20.434 to 20.438. See the emails below.

Is this something that you would do? Or would Debora? And, could it be done by next Wednesday's Law Revision meeting?

Thanks for any information you can provide.

Laura

We have approval for the change. Can we get it considered for the next Law Revision meeting? Thanks! Steve

Hi Steve,

This seems within the scope of remedial legislation. We are having a Law Revision meeting next Wednesday, 12/12, and this may be the last meeting where the Committee considers agency remedial legislation.

Have you discussed this with anyone in the secretary's office? We have worked with them on past remedial bills. I would suggest you contact them and let them know of this suggestion. If they give the okay, I will submit this to the LRB for drafting, and hopefully we can get it in time for the 12/12 meeting.

thanks

Laura

Subject: Remedial Legislation -- Board on Developmental Disabilities

Laura and Jessica:

My name is Steve Milioto and I am an analyst with the State Budget Office.

The State Controller's Office has asked us if it would be possible to change the agency number for the newly-created Board for People with Developmental Disabilities from 434 to 438. Apparently, there was another board that used to have agency number 434 and there is still accounting activity related to that agency number.

Would it be possible to change the agency number via remedial legislation? Thanks, Steve

INSERT 2-8

INSERT A to LRB-3621/P1

NOTE: 2007 Wisconsin Act 20, SEC. 330s (biennial budget act) created the board for people with developmental disabilities. The statute creating the board is numbered s. 20.434. Previously, the same statutory number created the adolescent pregnancy prevention board, repealed by 2003 Wisconsin Act 33, SEC. 444. According to DOA, while there is no longer any accounting activity with regard to the adolescent pregnancy prevention board, balances remain on the books for the board. More importantly, personnel and payroll records for former employees of the pregnancy board are currently identified with a "434" agency number. Because that agency number is now applied to the board for people with developmental disabilities, DOA no longer has the ability to recreate information concerning earnings for the past employees of the pregnancy board. Therefore, this bill renumbers the statute creating the new board for people with developmental disabilities so the new board may be assigned a different agency number.
