Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill repeals the current fee schedule that allows notary publics to charge for their services. The fee currently allowed depends on the type of document that is notarized.

The impact of this bill, if any, is likely to be felt by the circuit courts, most commonly through the clerk of courts office. Based upon information provided by the clerks of court, this bill will result in only a small loss of revenue to the counties. Most clerks of court provide notary services free of charge. Under this bill, those who currently charge for notary public services will no longer receive that revenue.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications
