2007 Assembly Bill 498

Assembly Amendments 1 and 2

Memo published: October 29, 2007

Contact: Don Dyke, Chief of Legal Services (266-0292)

Under Assembly Bill 498, a person convicted of an OWI-related violation must pay any cost charged to or paid by a law enforcement agency for the withdrawal, testing, or analysis of the person's blood.

Assembly Amendment 1 includes within the coverage of the bill OWI-related convictions under local ordinances relating to all-terrain vehicles, motor vehicles, and snowmobiles. (Violations of local ordinances for intoxicated boating are already covered under the bill; see SECTION 2 of the bill and s. 30.80 (6) (a) 1., Stats.)

Assembly Amendment 2:

1. Revises the required notice given by a law enforcement officer to a person who has been requested to provide a chemical test specimen to reflect that, if convicted, the person may be required to pay for an alternate test when that test is a blood test (see p. 2, lines 7 to 10).
2. Provides an initial applicability clause (item 2).

Legislative History

Assembly Amendments 1 and 2 were offered by Representative Gundrum. The Assembly adopted both amendments and passed the bill as amended on a voice vote.
