Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill makes numerous changes to laws governing mobile homes, manufactured homes, and the mobile and manufactured housing industry. The changes primarily include the following:

Use of terms “mobile home,” “manufactured home,” and “modular home”

Under current law, there are several different definitions of the term “mobile home” and of the term “manufactured home.” Also, under current law, “mobile home” is often used as a general term that includes “manufactured home.” Because of changes in the mid-1970s in federal laws that define and regulate mobile and manufactured homes, only manufactured homes as defined under current federal law are being constructed today. This bill creates a single definition for “mobile home” and a single definition for “manufactured home” that apply more generally throughout the statutes by doing the following:

1. The bill establishes the definition of “mobile home” that is used in the subchapter of the statutes regulating the mobile and manufactured housing industry as the general definition of “mobile home” in the statutes. Thus, under the bill, a mobile home generally means a vehicle manufactured or assembled before June 15, 1976, that has an overall length of more than 45 feet, that is designed to be towed as a single unit or in sections on a highway by a motor vehicle, that has walls of rigid noncollapsible construction, and that is equipped and used, or intended to be used, primarily for human habitation. Under the bill, “mobile home” includes the mobile home structure, its plumbing, heating, air conditioning, and electrical systems, and all appliances and all other equipment carrying a manufacturer’s warranty.

2. The bill establishes the definition of “manufactured home” that is used in the subchapter of the statutes regulating the mobile and manufactured housing industry as the general definition of “manufactured home” in the statutes. Thus, under the bill, a manufactured home generally means either a mobile home or a structure designed to be used as a dwelling, either with or without a permanent foundation, that complies with the federal standards established for manufactured homes.

In addition, the bill makes the use of these terms more consistent with their definitions by doing the following:

1. The bill inserts references to “manufactured home” in certain places in current law that refer only to “mobile home” if the use of mobile home under current law is general and meant to include manufactured homes. The bill also inserts references to “manufactured home” in the statutes governing the treatment, for property and other tax purposes, of mobile and manufactured homes as either improvements to real property or as personal property.
2. The bill changes references to “mobile home” to be references to “manufactured home” in certain statutes that pertain only to structures that are newly constructed, since under federal law only manufactured homes are now being constructed.

The bill also changes references in the statutes to “manufactured buildings” to be references to “modular homes.” Under current law, such buildings are those that are intended for use as a dwelling, are of closed construction, and are fabricated or assembled in manufacturing facilities for installation at the building site or they are of open construction and are made or assembled in manufacturing facilities away from the building site for installation on the building site for which certification is sought by the manufacturer.

Monthly fees

Current law requires each city, town, or village (municipality) in which a mobile home park is located to collect from each mobile home occupying space in the park a monthly parking permit fee. The fee is calculated based on the value of the home multiplied by the general property gross tax rate, less certain credits. The total is divided by 12 to represent the monthly mobile home parking permit fee. Current law provides that the municipality may require the mobile home park operator to collect the fee from the mobile home owner.

The bill replaces the term “parking” wherever it appears in the phrase “monthly parking permit fee” in the statutes with the term “municipal,” so that the fee is called a “monthly municipal permit fee.”

Regulation of recreational vehicles

The bill makes minor modifications to the definition of “recreational vehicle,” and generally clarifies the applicability of certain vehicle regulations to recreational vehicles. The bill also uses the term “recreational vehicle” in place of “mobile home” where “mobile home” is used to refer to temporary living quarters.

Regulation of manufactured home communities

Under current law manufactured home communities and mobile home parks are regulated by the Department of Commerce (Commerce) and by the municipality in which the community or park is located. Generally, under current law, the terms “manufactured home community” and “mobile home park” are used in the statutes to describe similar places.

For purposes of regulation by Commerce, current law provides that a manufactured home community is any plot of ground upon which three or more manufactured homes that are occupied for dwelling or sleeping purposes are located. For purposes of regulation by the local municipality, current law provides that a mobile home park means any plot of ground upon which two or more units, occupied for dwelling or sleeping purposes are located. Consistent with regulation by Commerce, this bill increases from two to three the number of mobile or manufactured homes that must be located on a plot of ground before the ground is subject to regulation by the municipality in which the ground is located.
This bill also replaces the term “park” with “community” throughout the statutes where the term is used in reference to mobile home or manufactured home parks.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

If the principal dwelling on which the taxes were paid is owned by 2 or more persons or entities as joint tenants or tenants in common or is owned by spouses as marital property, “property taxes” is that part of property taxes paid that reflects the ownership percentage of the claimant, except that this limitation does not apply to spouses who file a joint return. If the principal dwelling is sold during the taxable year, the “property taxes” for the seller and buyer shall be the amount of the tax prorated to each in the closing agreement pertaining to the sale or, if not so provided for in the closing agreement, the tax shall be prorated between the seller and buyer in proportion to months of their respective ownership.

If the principal dwelling on which the taxes were paid is owned by 2 or more persons or entities as joint tenants or tenants in common or is owned by spouses as marital property, “property taxes” is that part of property taxes paid that reflects the ownership percentage of the claimant. If the principal dwelling is sold during the taxable year the “property taxes” for the seller and buyer shall be the amount of the tax prorated to each in the closing agreement pertaining to the sale or, if not so provided for in the closing agreement, the tax shall be prorated between the seller and buyer in proportion to months of their respective ownership. “Property taxes” includes monthly parking permit fees in respect to a principal dwelling collected under s. 66.0435 (3) (c).

SECTION 46. 71.07 (9) (a) 4. of the statutes is amended to read:

71.07 (9) (a) 4. “Rent constituting property taxes” means 25% of rent if heat is not included, or 20% of rent if heat is included, paid during the taxable year for which credit is claimed under this subsection, at arm’s length, for the use of a principal dwelling and contiguous land, excluding any payment for domestic, food, medical or other services which are unrelated to use of the dwelling as housing, less any rent paid that is properly includable as a trade or business expense under the internal revenue code. “Rent” includes space rental paid to a landlord for parking a mobile home or manufactured home. Rent shall be apportioned among the occupants of a principal dwelling according to their respective contribution to the total amount of rent paid. “Rent” does not include rent paid for the use of housing which was exempt from property taxation, except housing for which payments in lieu of taxes were made under s. 66.1201 (22).

SECTION 47. 71.52 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

71.52 (2) “Gross rent” means rental paid at arm’s length, solely for the right of occupancy of a homestead. “Gross rent” does not include, whether expressly set out in the rental agreement or not, charges for any medical services; other personal services such as laundry, transportation, counseling, grooming, recreational and therapeutic services; shared living expenses, including but not limited to food, supplies and utilities unless utility payments are included in the gross rent paid to the landlord; and food furnished by the landlord as a part of the rental agreement. “Gross rent” includes the rental paid to a landlord for parking of a mobile home or manufactured home, exclusive of any charges for food furnished by the landlord as a part of the rental agreement, plus parking monthly municipal permit fees paid under s. 66.0435 (3) (c) for a rented mobile home or manufactured home. If a homestead is an integral part of a multipurpose or multidwelling building, “gross rent” is the percentage of the gross rent on that part of the multipurpose or multidwelling building occupied by the household as a principal residence plus the same percentage of the gross rent on the land surrounding it, not exceeding one acre, that is reasonably necessary for use of the multipurpose or multidwelling building as a principal residence, except as the limitations under s. 71.54 (2) (b) apply. If the homestead is part of a farm, “gross rent” is the rent on up to 120 acres of the land contiguous to the claimant’s principal residence plus the rent on all improvements to real property on that land, except as the limitations under s. 71.54 (2) (b) apply.
If a claimant and persons who are not members of the claimant’s household reside in a homestead, the claimant’s “gross rent” is the gross rent paid by the claimant to the landlord for the homestead.

SECTION 48. 71.52 (7) of the statutes is amended to read:

71.52 (7) “Property taxes accrued” means real or personal property taxes or monthly parking municipal permit fees under s. 66.0435 (3) (c), exclusive of special assessments, delinquent interest and charges for service, levied on a homestead owned by the claimant or a member of the claimant’s household. “Real or personal property taxes” means those levied under ch. 70, less the tax credit, if any, afforded in respect of such property by s. 79.10. If a homestead is owned by 2 or more persons or entities as joint tenants or tenants in common or is owned as marital property or survivorship marital property and one or more such persons, entities or owners is not a member of the claimant’s household, property taxes accrued is that part of property taxes accrued levied on such homestead, reduced by the tax credit under s. 79.10, that reflects the ownership percentage of the claimant and the claimant’s household, except that if a homestead is owned by 2 or more natural persons or if 2 or more natural persons have an interest in a homestead, one or more of whom is not a member of the claimant’s household, and the claimant has a present interest, as that term is used in s. 700.03 (1), in the homestead and is required by the terms of a will that transferred the homestead or interest in the homestead to the claimant to pay the entire amount of property taxes levied on the homestead, property taxes accrued is property taxes accrued levied on such homestead, reduced by the tax credit under s. 79.10. A marital property agreement or unilateral statement under ch. 766 has no effect in computing property taxes accrued for a person whose homestead is not the same as the homestead of that person’s spouse. For purposes of this subsection, property taxes are “levied” when the tax roll is delivered to the local treasurer for collection. If a homestead is sold or purchased during the calendar year of the levy, the property taxes accrued for the seller and the buyer are the amount of the tax levy prorated to each in proportion to the periods of time each both owned and occupied the homestead during the year to which the claim relates. The seller may use the closing agreement pertaining to the sale of the homestead, the property tax bill for the year before the year to which the claim relates or the property tax bill for the year to which the claim relates as the basis for computing property taxes accrued, but those taxes are allowable only for the portion of the year during which the seller owned and occupied the sold homestead. If a household owns and occupies 2 or more homesteads in the same calendar year, property taxes accrued is the sum of the prorated property taxes accrued attributable to the household for each of such homesteads. If the household owns and occupies the homestead for part of the calendar year and rents a homestead for part of the calendar year, it may include both the proration of taxes on the homestead owned and rent constituting property taxes accrued with respect to the months the homestead is rented in computing the amount of the claim under s. 71.54 (1). If a homestead is an integral part of a multipurpose or multidwelling building, property taxes accrued are the percentage of the property taxes accrued on that part of the multipurpose or multidwelling building occupied by the household as a principal residence plus that same percentage of the property taxes accrued on the land surrounding it, not exceeding one acre, that is reasonably necessary for use of the multipurpose or multidwelling building as a principal residence, except as the limitations of s. 71.54 (2) (b) apply. If the homestead is part of a farm, property taxes accrued are the property taxes accrued on up to 120 acres of the land contiguous to the claimant’s principal residence and include the property taxes accrued on all improvements to real property located on such land, except as the limitations of s. 71.54 (2) (b) apply.
