AN ACT to create 302.395 of the statutes; relating to: charges for inmate telephone use at a jail or house of correction.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under this bill, charges imposed for a telephone call made by a person confined in a jail or house of correction may not exceed the charges that would be imposed for a comparable telephone call made by a person confined in a state prison.

For further information see the local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 302.395 of the statutes is created to read:

302.395 Charges for inmate telephone use. The charges imposed for a telephone call made by a person confined in a jail or house of correction may not exceed the charges that would be imposed for a comparable telephone call made by a person confined in a state prison.
