2007 ASSEMBLY BILL 539

AN ACT to amend 146.33 of the statutes; relating to: allowing a 16–year–old to donate blood with parental consent.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau
Under current law, any person who is 17 years old or older may donate blood in a voluntary and noncompensatory blood program. This bill provides that a 16–year–old may donate blood in such a program if his or her parent consents to the donation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 146.33 of the statutes is amended to read:

146.33 Blood donors. Any person who is 17 years old or older may donate blood in any voluntary and noncompensatory blood program, and any person who is 16 years old may donate blood in such a program if his or her parent consents to the donation.
