AN ACT to amend 939.63 (1) (intro.), 940.225 (1) (b), 941.2965 (2), 943.32 (2) and 946.415 (2) (c) of the statutes; relating to: use of a facsimile firearm and providing a penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a person who commits certain crimes by using or threatening to use a dangerous weapon or an article used or fashioned in a manner that the victim believes is a dangerous weapon is subject to greater penalties than he or she would be if he or she committed the crime without using a dangerous weapon.

Under this bill, a person is subject to the same penalties as he or she would be under current law for using a dangerous weapon if the person commits a crime using a facsimile firearm. A “facsimile firearm” is any replica, toy, starter pistol or other object that bears a reasonable resemblance to or that reasonably can be perceived to be an actual firearm.

Current law also prohibits a person from carrying or displaying a facsimile firearm in a way that would alarm, intimidate, threaten, or terrify another person. Anyone who does so is subject to a Class C forfeiture and may be required to pay a forfeiture not to exceed $500.

This bill increases that penalty to a Class A misdemeanor and a person who violates the provision may be fined up to $10,000, imprisoned for up to nine months, or both.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report concerning the proposed penalty and the costs or savings that are likely to result if the bill is enacted.
