AN ACT to amend 71.07 (5f) (b) 1., 71.28 (5f) (b) 1. and 71.47 (5f) (b) 1.; and to create 71.07 (5f) (e) and (f), 71.07 (5h) (e) and (f), 71.28 (5f) (e) and (f), 71.28 (5h) (e) and (f), 71.47 (5f) (e) and (f) and 560.206 (5) of the statutes; relating to: the transfer of, and the residency requirements under, the film production tax credits.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a film production company may claim income and franchise tax credits for expenses related to film production services, including a percentage of the salary or wages paid to the company’s employees in this state, and for capital investments made in this state by the film production company. This bill allows a film production company to transfer its film production tax credits to other taxpayers who may claim the credits against their state income and franchise tax liability.

Under current law, the amount of the credit that a film production company may claim for salary or wages is limited to the first $25,000 paid to each of the company’s employees who were residents of this state at the time that they were paid. Under the bill, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2007, and before January 1, 2010, the company may claim credits for employees who are not residents of this state at the time that they were paid. However, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2009, and before January 1, 2014, a film production company may claim credits for employees who are not residents of this state at the time that they were paid, only if the Department of Commerce (Commerce) certifies that at least 25 percent of the company’s employees were residents of this state at the time that they were paid. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2014, a film production company may claim credits for employees who are not residents of this state at the time that they were paid, only if Commerce certifies that at least 50 percent of the company’s employees were residents of this state at the time that they were paid.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
