2007 ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTION 22

February 27, 2007 - Introduced by Representatives PARISI, BLACK, BIES, DAVIS, BERCEAU, POCAN, POPE-ROBERTS, SEIDEL and SHERMAN, cosponsored by Senators LEHMAN and MILLER. Referred to Committee on Rules.

Whereas, the United States Congress has enacted legislation declaring Tibet an occupied country whose true representatives are the Dalai Lama and the Tibetan government in exile; and

Whereas, the United Nations human rights subcommission has passed a resolution concerning the present threat to the distinct cultural, religious, and national identity of the Tibetan people; and

Whereas, the suppression of human rights and freedom in Tibet must be the concern of all freedom-loving people everywhere; and

Whereas, on March 10, 2007, Tibetans throughout the world will gather in their host countries to commemorate the 48th anniversary of the Tibetan National Uprising against the Chinese occupation of their country and to honor more than one million Tibetans who died in their struggle for the independence of Tibet; and
Whereas, the Wisconsin Tibetan Association and the University of Wisconsin-Madison Students for a Free Tibet will this year gather at the state capitol in Madison; and

Whereas, it is fitting that we recognize Wisconsin’s Tibetan community and its plea for justice on this 48th anniversary of Tibetan National Uprising; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That the members of the Wisconsin legislature proclaim March 10, 2007, “Tibet Day.”
