AN ACT to amend 71.05 (6) (a) 15., 71.08 (1) (intro.), 71.21 (4), 71.26 (2) (a), 71.34 (1) (g), 71.45 (2) (a) 10. and 77.92 (4); and to create 71.07 (5i), 71.10 (4) (gab), 71.28 (5i), 71.30 (3) (dq), 71.47 (5i), 71.49 (1) (dq) and 560.207 of the statutes; relating to: creating an income and franchise tax credit for expenses related to nanotechnology and providing an exemption from emergency rule-making procedures.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill creates an income and franchise tax credit for certain expenses related to nanotechnology. Under the bill, generally, a person may claim a credit that is equal to the amount of state sales and use taxes the person paid in the taxable year on the purchase of machines, equipment, and certain other tangible personal property that are used by a nanotechnology business in this state for research, development, and manufacturing. In addition, a person may claim as a credit the amount of any payments to a public or private institution of higher education, or to a consortium of such institutions, for research, equipment, or the use of research facilities, or other qualified expenses as determined by the Department of Commerce (Commerce), that are directly related to nanotechnology. The bill defines “nanotechnology” as the science and technology that enables a person to understand, measure, manipulate, and manufacture materials at the atomic, molecular, and supermolecular levels. A “nanotechnology business” is a business that is primarily engaged in applying nanotechnologies to create new applications or processes, or modify existing applications or processes, in order to make useful processes and products related to health care, energy, food production, manufacturing, biotechnology, information technology, or the environment. A person who wishes to claim the credit must first apply to Commerce.

Under the bill, if a person claims a credit in an amount that exceeds the person’s income and franchise tax liability, the person does not receive a tax refund for the excess amount, but, instead, may carry forward the amount of any unused credit to the ten subsequent taxable years. The maximum amount of the credits that taxpayers may claim in any state fiscal year is $2,500,000, as allocated by Commerce.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
