2007 SENATE BILL 280

AN ACT to renumber and amend 66.0505; and to create 66.0505 (1) and 66.0505 (3) of the statutes; relating to: authorizing an elective member of a political subdivision’s governing body to refuse his or her salary.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Generally under current law, the salary or compensation received by a member of a common council, village board, or county board is set by the governing body. The salary or compensation received by a member of a town board is set by the town meeting.

This bill authorizes a member or member-elect of the governing body of a city, village, town, or county to refuse to accept the salary to which he or she is otherwise entitled, in which case the local treasurer may not pay the individual his or her salary. The bill also authorizes the member or member-elect to rescind his or her refusal to accept the salary.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
