2007 SENATE BILL 542

February 27, 2008 – Introduced by Senator DARLING, cosponsored by Representatives TOWNSEND, A. WILLIAMS, GRIGSBY and BERCEAU. Referred to Committee on Tax Fairness and Family Prosperity.

AN ACT to amend 48.981 (9); and to repeal and recreate 48.981 (7) (cr) of the statutes; relating to: public disclosure of certain information when abuse or neglect results in a child dying or being placed in serious or critical condition or when a child under 13 years of age has been the victim of sexual assault.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Introduction

Under current federal law, to be eligible for a grant under the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act (commonly referred to as “CAPTA”), a state must have in effect a state plan that includes, among other things, provisions that allow for public disclosure of findings and information about a case of child abuse or neglect that has resulted in a child fatality or near fatality. This bill eliminates the current state law that under certain circumstances permits disclosure to the general public of certain information relating to a child who has died or been placed in serious or critical condition as a result of suspected abuse or neglect (child fatality or near fatality) and instead requires certain information to be transmitted to the legislature and made available to the public when an incident occurs in which a child has died or been placed in serious or critical condition as a result of suspected abuse or neglect or in which a child under 13 years of age has been the victim of sexual assault (egregious incident).

Current law

When disclosure is permitted. Under current law, a county department of human services or social services or, in Milwaukee County, the Department of Health and Family Services (DHFS) or a child welfare agency that is responsible for investigating reports of suspected or threatened child abuse or neglect (agency) is permitted to disclose to the general public a written summary of certain information relating to a child fatality or near fatality if any of the following circumstances apply:

1. A person has been charged with a crime for causing the death or serious or critical condition of a child as a result of suspected abuse or neglect or if a person who is deceased would have been so charged, but for the fact that the person is deceased.

2. A judge, district attorney, law enforcement officer or agency, or any other officer or agency whose official duties include the investigation or prosecution of crime has previously disclosed to the public that the suspected abuse or neglect has been investigated or that child welfare services have been provided to the child or the child’s family.

3. A parent, guardian, or legal custodian of the child or the child, if 14 years of age or over, has previously disclosed or authorized the disclosure of the information.

What disclosure is permitted. The information that may be disclosed in cases of a child fatality or near fatality is as follows:

1. A description of any investigation made by the agency in response to the report of the suspected abuse or neglect; a statement of the determination made by the agency as to whether abuse or neglect occurred and the basis for that determination; a statement of whether any services were offered or provided to the child, the child’s family, or the person suspected of the abuse or neglect; and a statement of whether any other action was taken by the agency to protect the child who is the subject of the report or any other child residing in the same dwelling as that child.

2. Whether any previous report of suspected or threatened abuse or neglect of the child has been made to the agency and the date of the report; a statement of the determination made by the agency as to whether abuse or neglect occurred and the basis for that determination; a statement of whether any services were offered or provided to the child, the child’s family, or the person suspected of the abuse or neglect; and a statement of whether any other action was taken by the agency to protect the child who is the subject of the report or any other child residing in the same dwelling as that child.

3. Whether the child or the child’s family has received any child welfare services prior to the report of suspected abuse or neglect that caused the child fatality or near fatality or prior to any previous report of suspected or threatened abuse or neglect.

When disclosure is not permitted. An agency may not disclose such information if any of the following circumstances apply:

1. The agency determines that disclosure of the information would be contrary to the best interests of the child, the child’s siblings, or any other child residing in the same dwelling as the child or that disclosure of the information is likely to cause mental, emotional, or physical harm or danger to the child, the child’s siblings, any other child residing in the same dwelling as the child, or any other person.

2. The district attorney determines that disclosure of the information would jeopardize any ongoing or future criminal investigation or prosecution or would jeopardize a defendant’s right to a fair trial.
SENATE BILL 542

3. The agency determines that disclosure of the information would jeopardize any ongoing or future civil investigation or proceeding or would jeopardize the fairness of the proceeding.

4. Disclosure of the information is not authorized by state law or rule or federal law or regulation.

5. The investigation of the abuse or neglect report has not been completed, in which case the agency may only disclose that the report is under investigation.

6. Disclosure of the information would reveal the identity of the child, the child’s siblings, the child’s parents, guardian, or legal custodian, or any other person residing in the same dwelling as the child.

7. Disclosure of the information would reveal the identity of the person who reported the suspected abuse or neglect of the child or any other person who provides information relating to that suspected abuse or neglect.

The bill

When disclosure is required. This bill eliminates current law relating to disclosure to the general public of information about a child fatality or near fatality. Instead, the bill requires an agency that has reason to suspect that an egregious incident has occurred to provide to the subunit of DHFS responsible for statewide oversight of child abuse and neglect programs, within two working days after determining that an egregious incident is suspected to have occurred, the age, gender, and race or ethnicity of the child and the date of the egregious incident; the suspected cause of the death or serious or critical condition of the child (if the egregious incident resulted in the death or serious or critical condition of the child); a brief history of the child welfare services offered or provided to the child, the child’s family, and the person suspected of the abuse or neglect; a statement of whether the child was placed in his or her home or outside the home when the egregious incident occurred; and the identity of any law enforcement agency that referred the report of the egregious incident to the agency and of any law enforcement agency, district attorney, or other officer or agency to which the agency referred the report of the egregious incident.

The subunit of DHFS then is required to review that information, together with any information about the child, the child’s family, and the person suspected of the abuse or neglect that is maintained in the statewide automated child welfare information system and any additional information requested from the agency, and, in collaboration with the agency, to prepare a summary report about the egregious incident. Within six weeks after receiving the information from the agency, the subunit of DHFS must transmit the summary report to the legislature and, on transmitting the summary report, must make the summary report available to the public. DHFS must also include in its annual report to the governor and the legislature on the status of the state’s child abuse and neglect programs a cumulative report of all summary reports prepared under the bill through the last calendar year.

What disclosure is required. If the child was placed in his or her home when the egregious incident occurred, the summary report must contain all of the following:

If the child was placed in an out-of-home placement at the time of the egregious incident, the summary report must contain all of the following:

1. Information about the child, including the age, gender, and race or ethnicity of the child and, if relevant to the egregious incident, a description of any special needs of the child.

5. Any information the disclosure of which is not authorized by state law or rule or federal law or regulation.
