Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau
This resolution prohibits a committee of conference from considering or agreeing on any provision that was not part of the bill or resolution, as passed in either house of the legislature, that is before the committee.

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That:

SECTION 1. Joint rule 3 (1) (a) is amended to read:

Joint Rule 3 (1) (a) The usual manner of procedure is as follows: If a bill of one house has been amended and passed by the other house, and has been returned to the house of origin and the house of origin has refused to concur in an amendment, the house of origin may appoint a committee of conference and notify the other house, which shall appoint a committee of conference unless it votes to recede from its amendment. Such committees shall be appointed as provided in the rules of each house. The joint committee shall meet and state to each other, orally or in writing, the reasons of their respective houses for or against the disagreement, and confer thereon, and shall report to their respective houses any agreement they arrive at by the vote of at least a majority of the members of the committee representing each house. The committee may not consider or agree on any provision that was not part of the bill or resolution, as passed in either house.
