Experience

Growing up and having a father who was an auctioneer means that I have been around auctions and auctioneers all of my life. From early on I have been involved in all phases of all types of auctions. From the small household estate sale to calling bids at a major real estate auctions. From a church charity pie sale to a complete farm liquidation. We have handled all types of auctions.

I have also been very active in the Wisconsin Auctioneers Association and I regularly attend meetings, conventions and seminars sponsored by them. As noted above, I have served as a Director as well as President of the Association. In 2001 I was honored by being inducted into their Hall of Fame. As a member of the Association, I have had the pleasure to meet other Auctioneers from across the State of Wisconsin who share with me their views and concerns about our profession. As a member of the Auctioneer Board, I feel I would be a knowledgeable representative for both the consumer and the auction professionals.
