You can either send the jacket back for a redraft, or I can draft an amendment that does the same thing. It's up to you.

Hi Christopher,

We have a concern on the part of cattle farmers that the bill as it relates to farm products will make things difficult for them, since they implant RFID tags in their herds and might have to remove them prior to selling the livestock to anyone. Our objective with this bill was really just to cover consumer products, so can you amend the bill to at least ensure that livestock of any kind won't be affected? When you give me the go-ahead I'll send you the bill jacket.

Thanks!

Aaron Dumas
