3 page 4, line 3, and substitute:

4 “13.41 Interim successors for legislators. (3) (a) If, during an emergency 5 resulting from enemy action, there are more than 9 vacancies in the senate at the 6 same time, as determined under s. 17.03, the senate majority leader shall appoint 7 an interim successor to fill any seat left vacant by a member of the majority leader’s 8 political party; the senate minority leader shall appoint an interim successor to fill 9 any seat left vacant by a member of the minority leader’s political party; and, if a seat
10 is left vacant by a senator who is not a member of the majority leader’s or minority 11 leader’s political party, the leader of whichever of the 2 parties that most recently had 12 a member serving in the vacant senate seat shall appoint an interim successor for 13 the vacancy. The senate majority leader or senate minority leader may not appoint

1 an interim successor who is unwilling, unable, or ineligible under the constitution 2 and the statutes to serve as a legislator.

3 (b) If the majority leader's seat is vacant, the senate president shall make 4 appointments that the majority leader is required to make under par. (a), except that, 5 if the senate president's seat is vacant, the member of the majority leader's political 6 party who has served longest in the senate shall make the appointments that the 7 majority leader is required to make under par. (a).

8 (c) If the minority leader's seat is vacant, the assistant minority leader shall 9 make the appointments that the minority leader is required to make under par. (a), 10 except that, if the assistant minority leader's seat is vacant, the member of the 11 minority leader's political party who has served longest in the senate shall make the 12 appointments that the minority leader is required to make under par. (a).

13 (4) (a) If, during an emergency resulting from enemy action, there are more 14 than 25 vacancies in the assembly at the same time, as determined under s. 17.03, 15 the assembly majority leader shall appoint an interim successor to fill any seat left 16 vacant by a member of the majority leader's political party; the assembly minority 17 leader shall appoint an interim successor to fill any seat left vacant by a member of 18 the minority leader's political party; and, if a seat is left vacant by a member of the 19 assembly who is not a member of the majority leader's or minority leader's political 20 party, the leader of whichever of the 2 political parties that most recently had a 21 member serving in the vacant assembly seat shall appoint an interim successor for 22 the vacancy. The assembly majority leader or assembly minority leader may not 23 appoint an interim successor who is unwilling, unable, or ineligible under the 24 constitution and the statutes to serve as a legislator.

1 (b) If the majority leader’s seat is vacant, the assistant majority leader shall 2 make any appointments that the majority leader is required to make under par. (a), 3 except that, if the assistant majority leader’s seat is vacant, the member of the 4 majority leader’s political party who has served longest in the assembly shall make 5 any appointments that the majority leader is required to make under par. (a).

6 (c) If the minority leader’s seat is vacant, the assistant minority leader shall 7 make any appointments that the minority leader is required to make under par. (a),
8 except that, if the assistant minority leader’s seat is vacant, the member of the 9 minority leader’s political party who has served longest in the assembly shall make 10 the appointments that the minority leader is required to make under par. (a).”.
