probation for certain drunken driving offenses

and providing penalties

Gen

AN ACT ...; relating to: ~~drunken driving naltrexone~~

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, with certain exceptions, a person who commits a second offense relating to operating a motor vehicle under the influence of an intoxicant (OWI-related offense) is subject to a fine of not less than $350 nor more than $1,100 and imprisonment for not less than five days nor more than six months. A person who commits a third OWI-related offense is subject to a fine of not less than $600 nor more than $2,000, and imprisonment for not less than 30 days nor more than one year. A person who commits a fourth OWI-related offense is subject to the same fine and maximum period of imprisonment as the person who commits a third OWI-related offense, but his or her period of imprisonment may not be less than 60 days.

INSERT ANALYSIS

Under this bill, a person who commits a second or third OWI-related offense may be placed on probation if, as a condition of probation, the court requires the person to take a therapeutically indicated dose of the drug naltrexone for the duration of the person's period of probation.

The bill also eliminates the minimum fine imposed on a person who commits a second, third, or fourth OWI-related offense if the person is placed on probation and the court orders the person to take naltrexone for the duration of the person's period of probation.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report concerning the proposed penalty and the costs or savings that are likely to result if the bill is enacted.

BILL

2003 ASSEMBLY BILL 713

January 5, 2004 – Introduced by Representatives ALBERS, WIECKERT, BIES, HINES, F. LASEE, J. LEHMAN, OWENS and TOWNSEND. Referred to Committee on Criminal Justice.

1 AN ACT to repeal 973.09 (1) (d) 1., 2. and 3.; and to renumber and amend
 2 973.09 (1) (d) of the statutes; relating to: probation for certain offenses that are 3 related to operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated, and good-time credit for time served in jail as a condition of probation.

Analysis
1/15/04

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a court may place a person who is convicted of a crime on probation instead of ordering the person to serve a sentence for the crime unless probation is prohibited for the crime. With certain exceptions, if a person commits a crime for which a minimum term of imprisonment of one year or less is required, a court may still place the person on probation, but must require that the person serve the minimum term of imprisonment as a condition of probation. The exceptions provide that a court may not place a person on probation for a second or third ~~commission of certain offenses that are related to operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated.~~ OWI ~~related offense.~~

Also under current law, an inmate who is sentenced to imprisonment in a county jail may earn good-time credit against his or her sentence for good behavior. A person generally may not earn good-time credit on a term of confinement in jail that is imposed as a condition of probation. However, a person who is placed on probation for a crime for which a minimum term of imprisonment of one year or less is required, may earn good-time credit on the term of confinement in jail that a court must impose as a condition of probation.

2009 BILL

Regen

1 AN ACT to amend 346.65 (2) (am) 2., 346.65 (2) (am) 3., 346.65 (2) (am) 4., 346.65
2 (2) (bm), 346.65 (2) (cm), 346.65 (2j) (am) 2., 346.65 (2j) (am) 3., 346.65 (2j) (bm),
3 346.65 (2j) (cm), 973.09 (1) (d) 1. and 973.09 (1) (d) 3.; and to create 346.65 (2)
4 (br), 346.65 (2) (cr), 346.65 (2j) (br) and 346.65 (2j) (cr) of the statutes; relating
5 to: probation for certain drunken driving offenses and providing penalties.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, with certain exceptions, a person who commits a second offense relating to operating a motor vehicle under the influence of an intoxicant (OWI-related offense) is subject to a fine of not less than $350 nor more than $1,100 and imprisonment for not less than five days nor more than six months. A person who commits a third OWI-related offense is subject to a fine of not less than $600 nor more than $2,000, and imprisonment for not less than 30 days nor more than one year. A person who commits a fourth OWI-related offense is subject to the same fine and maximum period of imprisonment as a person who commits a third OWI-related offense, but his or her period of imprisonment may not be less than 60 days.

Under current law, a court may place a person who is convicted of a crime on probation instead of ordering the person to serve a sentence for the crime unless probation is prohibited for the crime. With certain exceptions, if a person commits a crime for which a minimum term of imprisonment of one year or less is required, a court may still place the person on probation, but must require that the person serve the minimum term of imprisonment as a condition of probation. The exceptions provide that a court may not place a person on probation for a second or third OWI-related offense.

Under this bill, a person who commits a second or third OWI-related offense may be placed on probation if, as a condition of probation, the court requires the person to take a therapeutically indicated dose of the drug naltrexone for the duration of the person's period of probation.

Insert Analysis ✓

The bill also eliminates the minimum fine imposed on a person who commits a second, third, or fourth OWI-related offense if the person is placed on probation and the court orders the person to take naltrexone for the duration of the person's period of probation.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report concerning the proposed penalty and the costs or savings that are likely to result if the bill is enacted.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
