AN ACT to repeal 977.07 (2); to renumber and amend 977.02 (3); to amend 20.550 (1) (fb), 303.065 (5) (dm), 973.06 (1) (e), 977.06 (1) (a), 977.06 (2) (a) and 977.085 (3); and to create 977.02 (3) (a) to (d) of the statutes; relating to: criteria for determining indigency for purposes of representation by the State Public Defender and requiring the exercise of rule–making authority.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the State Public Defender (SPD) provides counsel to represent people in various legal proceedings, including criminal proceedings that may result in imprisonment, emergency detention or involuntary civil commitment proceedings, proceedings for the protective placement, of an adult, paternity determinations, and juvenile delinquency proceedings. The SPD generally may provide counsel to a child or juvenile, or to an adult who is the subject of certain civil detention and commitment proceedings, regardless of the person's income or assets. Otherwise, the SPD may provide counsel only to people who are indigent.

Current law provides that a person is indigent for purposes of SPD representation if the person's income and assets, after deduction for reasonable and necessary living expenses, are insufficient to cover the cost of effective legal representation. Current law equates reasonable and necessary living expenses with benefit amounts under the former Aid to Families with Dependent Children program. However, in determining whether a person can afford counsel, courts are not limited by the SPD indigency criteria. If a person is the subject of a legal proceeding for which he or she has the right to appointed counsel if he or she cannot afford counsel, and the person offers proof that he or she cannot afford counsel, the court must independently review the person's circumstances. If the court finds that the person cannot afford counsel and does not meet the criteria for SPD appointment. the court must appoint private counsel and the county in which the court sits must pay the appointed counsel.

This bill changes the criteria for determining indigency for the purpose of SPD representation. Under the bill, the SPD must adopt rules regarding indigency determinations that require the SPD, when assessing a person's eligibility, to consider the anticipated costs of effective representation for the type of case in which the person is involved. The rules must also require that assets and income be treated as available to the person to pay the costs of legal representation if they exceed the asset and income ceilings for eligibility for the Wisconsin Works (W-2) program, except that the asset exclusion for a person's home is limited to $30,000. (To be eligible for the W-2 program, a person's household assets, after excluding up to $10,000 for a vehicle and the value of the person's home, cannot exceed $2,500, and his or her household income cannot exceed 115 percent of the federal poverty line.) Additionally, under the rules, the SPD must treat assets or income of the person's spouse as the person's assets or income, unless the spouse was the victim of a crime the person allegedly committed. The bill provides the Public Defender Board authority for 51.30 new full-time equivalent general purpose revenue positions.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
