Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, school districts that participate in the Special Transfer Program (commonly known as “Chapter 220”), which allows pupils to attend public school in another school district or in another attendance area within the same school district in order to reduce racial imbalance, receive additional state aid.

This bill eliminates Special Transfer Program aid after the 2010–11 school year.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
