October 15, 2009

This amendment affects the new provision, created in the budget, that prohibits paying a child care subsidy for care of a child whose parent (or a person who lives with the child) is employed by the child's child care provider, unless 60 percent of all the children cared for by the provider are not children whose parents (or persons living with the children) are employed by the provider.

This amendment may be considered nongermane under Assembly Rule 54 (3) (f) if it is determined to substantially expand the scope of the bill.
