- 2. The notification contains the local governmental unit's reasons why it believes the method it intends to use to hire the consultant would better serve the public interest than if it used the qualifications—based selection process.
- 3. Based on the written notification that it receives from the local governmental unit, the department of administration issues a written finding that the local governmental unit has demonstrated that a major factor in the method it intends to use to hire the consultant is the qualifications of the consultant, and that the local governmental unit does not intend to use a process that is based only on cost.
- 4. The local governmental unit has not submitted the notification described in subd. 1. more than twice during any 12–month period.".
