1 AN ACT to renumber 66.0410 (1) (a) and 66.0410 (1) (b); to amend 66.0410 (2)
2 (a) and 66.0410 (2) (b); and to create 66.0410 (1) (bm), 66.0410 (1) (bs), 66.0410
3 (1) (c), 66.0410 (1) (e), 66.0410 (2) (c), 66.0410 (2) (d) and 66.0410 (3) of the 4 statutes; relating to: the local regulation of ticket selling and providing 5 penalties.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a city, village, town, or county (political subdivision) may not enact an ordinance or adopt a resolution that prohibits the resale of any ticket to an entertainment event or a sporting event if the resale price is equal to or less than the ticket's face value. Also under current law, the Board of Regents of the University of Wisconsin System (university) may not promulgate a rule or adopt a resolution prohibiting the resale of any ticket for an amount that is equal to or less than the ticket's face value.

This substitute amendment authorizes the university or an entity (a professional baseball or football district, the Bradley Center, or Milwaukee World Festival, Inc., which operates the Summerfest grounds) to create a resale zone. A resale zone is defined as property controlled by an entity or the university that the entity designates as the only area of its property in which a ticket may be resold. With regard to the university, it may create a resale zone only for Camp Randall

x2 at or below face value

Stadium and the Kohl Center. The substitute amendment also authorizes a political subdivision to prohibit the reselling of tickets within 250 feet of any property on which a resale zone is created and to prohibit the reselling of tickets to a National Collegiate Athletic Association tournament event within 250 feet of the Bradley Center.

If a person is convicted of violating the requirements of a resale zone, the person is subject to a forfeiture of $10 for the first offense, and the law enforcement officer who issues the citation must also give the person information about the penalty that may apply for any subsequent violations. For a first offense, no court costs may be imposed on a defendant. For a second or any subsequent offense, a person is subject to a forfeiture not to exceed the penalty for a Class C forfeiture, which is a civil penalty with a maximum forfeiture of $500.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. 66.0410 (1) (a) of the statutes is renumbered 66.0410 (1) (be).
