

DRAFTER'S NOTE
FROM THE
LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

LRB-4265/2dn

PJK:bjk:md

February 26, 2010

In case you are wondering why I did not add “but not limited to” after “including,” it is a rule of drafting that to add the phrase is redundant because “including” means that the list that follows is not exhaustive. See 2009–2010 Wisconsin Bill Drafting Manual, section 2.01 (1) (i). You may wish to remove the list of medications if you think that the list will be limiting.

Pamela J. Kahler
Senior Legislative Attorney
Phone: (608) 266-2682
E-mail: pam.kahler@legis.wisconsin.gov