Aaron,

I need redrafting done for the 09 session based on bills from the 07 session.

1- Please redraft and 2007 SJR 82 into 2009 session format with no language changes.

Please contact me at the office if you have questions. Nicole Yunk of Justice 2000, Inc and Mitch Warren of DOT are authorized to see and comment on drafting.

Thanks,
Eric

Subject: Driver License bills

Hi Cindy and Eric, I hope fall is treating you well.

Speaking with Nichole Yunk I understand you're planning on beginning the drafting on the Driver License Recovery Omnibus package, and the Federal Drug opt-out.

I thought I'd throw my $.02 out from DOT.

As I recall, the opt-out bill and companion joint resolutions were perfect last session. Recommend a redraft using those bills as models. Please remember, this is not a proposal that DOT supports nor opposes.

Take care.

2009 SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION

Assembly

D-Note

1 Relating to: opposing a federal mandate requiring the suspension or revocation of 2 driver's licenses in all circumstances in which a person has been convicted of 3 a drug or other controlled substances violation and exercising the state's option 4 to opt out of this federal mandate.

5 Whereas, federal law, under 23 USC 159 and regulations promulgated under 6 this federal statute, including 23 CFR 192, requires states, as a prerequisite to 7 receiving certain federal transportation-related funds, either to enact a state law 8 mandating the suspension or revocation of driver's licenses in all circumstances 9 in which a person has been convicted of a drug or other controlled substances violation 10 or to resolve that the state is opposed to a federal mandate requiring the suspension 11 or revocation of driver's licenses in these circumstances; and

12 Whereas, this state adopted legislation in accordance with this federal law in 13 chapters 938 and 961 of the Wisconsin statutes, mandating driver's license 14 suspensions for adults and juveniles convicted or adjudicated of a violation of this 15 state's Uniform Controlled Substances Act; and
