Let me know if you have any questions. Obviously the pronunciation probably doesn't need to be in the Relating to clause, it is more to ensure the Chief Clerk pronounces it correctly.

Thanks,

Darryl

Relating to proclaiming September 18, 19, and 20, 2009, as Gemuetlichkeit Days (ge-meat-li-kite).

Whereas the State of Wisconsin has long been the home for countless German immigrants, who have become the foundation of this state's great heritage; and

Whereas the State of Wisconsin has one of the largest representations of German ancestry in the United States; and

Whereas German-Americans have helped establish some of Wisconsin's most treasured pastimes such as polka, euchre, brats and beer; and

Whereas many of the State of Wisconsin's fine cities and towns are named in recognition of this heritage; and

Whereas the City of Milwaukee, continues to be a beacon of German culture for many generations of German immigrants; and

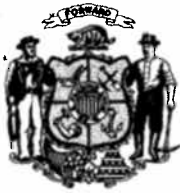

Whereas Gemuetlichkeit Days celebrates all of the great German qualities that have become so important to our state's culture; and

Whereas the celebration will focus on German food, music, dancing, and even include a parade, all of which allow for a fun way to reconnect with our state's German heritage.

Whereas the City of Jefferson has been the home of Gemuetlichkeit Days since 1971, for all of Wisconsin to come and enjoy while proclaiming that, "everyone is German during Gemuetlichkeit Days;" now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, that the Wisconsin legislature proclaims the days of September 18, 19, and 20, 2009, as Gemuetlichkeit Days so that this Great state may honor the German heritage that has been an integral part of Wisconsin for so long.
