

State of Wisconsin

2009 Assembly Resolution 27

ENGROSSED RESOLUTION

Relating to: the life and public service of Jesse T. Alswager.

Whereas, Jesse T. Alswager, a tireless advocate for people with type 1 diabetes, passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday, February 3, 2010, at the age of 13, due to sudden complications from diabetes; and

Whereas, Jesse, the son of Tom Alswager and Michelle Page Alswager, was born on September 24, 1996, at Meriter Hospital in Madison, Wisconsin; and

Whereas, Jesse was in the seventh grade at Toki Middle School and previously attended Huegel Elementary School, both in Madison; and

Whereas, at the age of three, Jesse was diagnosed with type 1 diabetes; and

Whereas, in 2000, on his fourth birthday, Jesse and his family did the first Team Alswager Walk for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, raising $22,000; and

Whereas, Jesse's efforts to find a cure for diabetes and help those with the disease included traveling to Washington, D.C., at age six in 2003 with the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation Children's Congress, testifying before a United States Senate hearing with Mary Tyler Moore, the International Chairperson of JDRF, and pushing for stem cell research in meetings with Senators Russ Feingold and Herb Kohl, Congresswoman Tammy Baldwin, and Tommy Thompson, who was at that time the secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services; and

Whereas, Governor Jim Doyle recognized Jesse's work with the Children's Congress during the 2006 Wisconsin State of the State address; and

Whereas, for the past five years, Jesse and his close friend Aaron Liebe, also diagnosed with juvenile diabetes at age three, have been the Junior Ambassadors for Thunder Run Ride for the Cure, a benefit to raise money for diabetes research; and

Whereas, Jesse and his dad were to participate in the Thunder Run ride this July; and

Whereas, Jesse reached out to kids nationwide who had diabetes and needed someone to talk to; and

Whereas, Jesse was one of the inspirations for professional snowboarder Sean Busby, a type 1 diabetic, to start and run the Riding on Insulin camps for kids with diabetes, so they can learn snowboarding safely, with the oversight of doctors working with the program; and

Whereas 1,000 people attended Jesse's memorial service, and Sean Busby came from California to speak; and

Whereas, Jesse's mother, Michelle, who served as the executive director of the Western Wisconsin chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, plans to participate in the JDRF Ride to Cure Diabetes 100-mile bike ride in Death Valley, California, in October 2010 so that Jesse's advocacy will continue after his death; and

Whereas, even in death, Jesse has inspired groups nationwide to hold diabetes fundraisers in his name, including 40 people from Madison who will ride in his name at this year's Death Valley bike ride; and

Whereas, Jesse enjoyed music tremendously, was a talented drummer and guitarist, and played frequently at the High Noon Saloon in Madison; and

Whereas, Jesse loved sports, especially skateboarding, baseball, and snowboarding; and

Whereas, Jesse was known as "the chill kid" for his peacekeeping ability, infectious love of life, and kind regard for everyone he met; and

Whereas, Jesse was a light in the eyes of those who knew him and was a tremendously strong advocate in the face of a devastating chronic disease; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the assembly, That the members of the Wisconsin assembly commend Jesse Alswager for his service on behalf of people with diabetes, both in Wisconsin and nationally, for his unwavering spirit in the face of adversity, and for the joy and humor he brought to his family and community; and, be it further

Resolved, That the Wisconsin assembly expresses its deep sorrow at Jesse's death and extends its sincere condolences to his family and friends; and, be it further

Resolved, That the assembly chief clerk shall provide a copy of this resolution to Jesse's parents, Michelle Page Alswager and Tom Alswager, of Madison, Wisconsin.

State Capitol
Madison, Wisconsin

Representative Michael J. Sheridan
Speaker of the Assembly

Date

Patrick E. Fuller
Assembly Chief Clerk

ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION 27 (LRB -4715)

Relating to: the life and public service of Jesse T. Alswager.

2010

- 04-22. A. Introduced by Representative Berceau.
- 04-22. A. Read and referred to committee on Rules.
- 04-22. A. Rules suspended to withdraw from committee on Rules and take up.
- 04-22. A. Adopted.

JP

Resolution On "Certificate" Form

ENGROSS SIMPLE RES

09en A Res 27

ADOPTED DOCUMENTS:

Orig ___ SubAmdt ___

09 - 471511

Amendments to above (if none, write "NONE"):

None

Corrections - show date (if none, write "NONE"):

None

Topic

Rel

4-27-10

Date

J. R. Miller

Drafter

ELECTRONIC PROCEDURE:

Follow automatic or manual enrolling procedures in TEXT2000 Reference Guide, Document Specific Procedures, Ch. 20, Engrossing and Enrolling

State of Wisconsin
2009-2010 LEGISLATURE

CORRECTIONS IN:

2009 ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION 27

Prepared by the Legislative Reference Bureau
(April 28, 2010)

In enrolling, the following correction was made:

1. Page 2, line 24: delete “all over the nation” and substitute “Madison”.

(END)

2009 ASSEMBLY RESOLUTION 27

April 22, 2010 - Introduced by Representative BERCEAU. Referred to Committee on Rules.

1 Relating to: the life and public service of Jesse T. Alswager.

2 Whereas, Jesse T. Alswager, a tireless advocate for people with type 1 diabetes, 3 passed away unexpectedly on Wednesday, February 3, 2010, at the age of 13, due to 4 sudden complications from diabetes; and

5 Whereas, Jesse, the son of Tom Alswager and Michelle Page Alswager, was born 6 on September 24, 1996, at Meriter Hospital in Madison, Wisconsin; and

7 Whereas, Jesse was in the seventh grade at Toki Middle School and previously 8 attended Huegel Elementary School, both in Madison; and

9 Whereas, at the age of three, Jesse was diagnosed with type 1 diabetes; and

10 Whereas, in 2000, on his fourth birthday, Jesse and his family did the first Team 11 Alswager Walk for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, raising $22,000; and

12 Whereas, Jesse's efforts to find a cure for diabetes and help those with the 13 disease included traveling to Washington, D.C., at age six in 2003 with the Juvenile 14 Diabetes Research Foundation Children's Congress, testifying before a United 15 States Senate hearing with Mary Tyler Moore, the International Chairperson of

1 JDRF, and pushing for stem cell research in meetings with Senators Russ Feingold
2 and Herb Kohl, Congresswoman Tammy Baldwin, and Tommy Thompson, who was 3 at that time the secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services; and

4 Whereas, Governor Jim Doyle recognized Jesse's work with the Children's 5 Congress during the 2006 Wisconsin State of the State address; and

6 Whereas, for the past five years, Jesse and his close friend Aaron Liebe, also 7 diagnosed with juvenile diabetes at age three, have been the Junior Ambassadors for 8 Thunder Run Ride for the Cure, a benefit to raise money for diabetes research; and

9 Whereas, Jesse and his dad were to participate in the Thunder Run ride this 10 July; and

11 Whereas, Jesse reached out to kids nationwide who had diabetes and needed 12 someone to talk to; and

13 Whereas, Jesse was one of the inspirations for professional snowboarder Sean 14 Busby, a type 1 diabetic, to start and run the Riding on Insulin camps for kids with 15 diabetes, so they can learn snowboarding safely, with the oversight of doctors 16 working with the program; and

17 Whereas 1,000 people attended Jesse's memorial service, and Sean Busby came 18 from California to speak; and

19 Whereas, Jesse's mother, Michelle, who served as the executive director of the 20 Western Wisconsin chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, plans to 21 participate in the JDRF Ride to Cure Diabetes 100-mile bike ride in Death Valley, 22 California, in October 2010 so that Jesse's advocacy will continue after his death; and

23 Whereas, even in death, Jesse has inspired groups nationwide to hold diabetes
24 fundraisers in his name, including 40 people from all over the nation who will ride
25 in his name at this year's Death Valley bike ride; and

