16 amounts on tangible personal property or items, property, or works under s. 77.52 17 (1) (b), (c), or (d) that remain in the seller's possession until the full sales price or

21 any bad debt that the seller writes off as uncollectible in the seller's books and records 22 and that is eligible to be deducted as a bad debt for federal income tax purposes, 23 regardless of whether the seller is required to file a federal income tax return. A 24 seller who claims a deduction under this paragraph shall claim the deduction on the 25 return under s. 77.58 that is submitted for the period in which the seller writes off

1 the amount of the deduction as uncollectible in the seller's books and records and in 4 which a deduction is claimed under this paragraph, the seller shall include the 5 amount collected in the return filed for the period in which the amount is collected 6 and shall pay the tax with the return.

7 (c) For purposes of computing a bad debt deduction or reporting a payment

15 deducted under par. (b) that exceeds the amount of the seller's taxable sales as 16 provided under s. 77.59 (4), except that the period for making a claim as determined 17 under s. 77.59 (4) begins on the date on which the return on which the bad debt could 18 be claimed would have been required to be submitted to the department under s.
19 77.58.

20 (e) If a seller is using a certified service provider, the certified service provider 21 may claim a bad debt deduction under this subsection on the seller's behalf if the 22 seller has not claimed and will not claim the same deduction. A certified service 23 provider who receives a bad debt deduction under this subsection shall credit that 24 deduction to the seller and a certified service provider who receives a refund under 25 this subsection shall submit that refund to the seller.

1

(f) If a bad debt relates to the retail sales of tangible personal property, items, property, or works under s. 77.52 (1) (b), (c), or (d), or taxable services that occurred in this state and in one or more other states, as determined under s. 77.522, the total amount of such bad debt shall be apportioned among the states in which the underlying sales occurred in a manner prescribed by the department to arrive at the amount of the deduction under par. (b).

2

(2) If a lessor of tangible personal property or items, property, or works under s. 77.52 (1) (b), (c), or (d) has reimbursed the vendor for the sales tax on the sale of the property, items, or works by the vendor to the lessor, the tax due from the lessor on the rental receipts may be offset by a credit equal to the tax otherwise due on the rental receipts from the property, items, or works for the reporting period. The credit shall expire when the cumulative rental receipts equal the sales price upon which the vendor paid sales taxes to this state.

3

(3) If a purchaser of tangible personal property or items, property, or works under s. 77.52 (1) (b), (c), or (d) has reimbursed the vendor of the property, items, or works for the sales tax on the sale and subsequently, before making any use of the property, items, or works other than retention, demonstration, or display while holding it for sale or rental, makes a taxable sale of the property, items, or works the tax due on the taxable sale may be offset by the tax reimbursed.

4

(4) A seller may claim a deduction on any part of the sales price or purchase price that the seller refunds in cash or credit as a result of returned tangible personal property or items, property, or works under s. 77.52 (1) (b), (c), or (d) or adjustments in the sales price or purchase price after the sale has been completed, if the seller has included the refunded price in a prior return made by the seller and has paid the tax on such price, and if the seller has returned to the purchaser in cash or in credit all

1 tax previously paid by the purchaser on the amount of the refund at the time of the 2 purchase. A deduction under this subsection shall be claimed on the return for the 3 period in which the refund is paid.

5 event that tangible personal property or items, property, or works under s. 77.52 (1)

7 paid by the purchaser is refunded to the purchaser or where a credit for a worthless 8 account is allowable under sub. (1).

9 (6) A purchaser who is subject to the use tax on the storage, use, or other 10 consumption of fuel may claim a deduction from the purchase price that is subject 11 to the use tax for fuel taxes refunded by this state or the United States to the 12 purchaser that is included in the purchase price of the fuel.

13 (7) For sales tax purposes, if a retailer establishes to the department's 14 satisfaction that the sales tax has been added to the total amount of the sales price 15 and has not been absorbed by the retailer, the total amount of the sales price shall 16 be the amount received exclusive of the sales tax imposed.

17 (8) A sale or purchase involving transfer of ownership of tangible personal 18 property or items, property, or works under s. 77.52 (1) (b), (c), or (d) is completed at 19 the time when possession is transferred by the seller or the seller's agent to the 20 purchaser or the purchaser's agent, except that for purposes of sub. (1) a common 21 carrier or the U.S. postal service shall be considered the agent of the seller, regardless 22 of any f.o.b. point and regardless of the method by which freight or postage is paid.

8 refund under sub. (4) (a) or (b) that is offset under sub. (5), shall submit the taxes and

10 department if the seller cannot locate the buyers, within 90 days after the date of the 11 refund, after the date of the offset, or after discovering that the seller has collected

16 or, in the case of fraud, a penalty equal to the amount not submitted. A person who 17 collects amounts as taxes erroneously from buyers for a real property construction 18 activity or nontaxable service may reduce the taxes and interest that he or she is 19 required to submit to the buyer or to the department under this subsection for that 20 activity or service by the amount of tax and interest subsequently due and paid on

7 shall be made for the period in respect to which the person failed to make a return 8 and shall be based upon any information which is in the department's possession or 9 may come into its possession. Upon the basis of this estimate the department shall 10 compute and determine the amount required to be paid to the state, adding to the 11 sum thus arrived at a penalty equal to 25% thereof. One or more such determinations 12 may be made for one or for more than one period. When a business is discontinued 13 a determination may be made at any time thereafter, within the periods specified in 14 sub. (3), as to liability arising out of that business.

15 SECTION 280. 77.59 (9n) of the statutes is created to read:
