11          s. 971.14 (5) (a), the court-martial shall suspend or terminate the commitment order 12          under this subsection.

NOTE: Corrects cross-reference. There is no s. 971.17 (5) (b). Section 971.14 (5)
(b) provides for reexamination and reports regarding a person initially determined to be incompetent to stand trial.

3 vehicle that is not a salvage vehicle and holds it for resale, or acquires a salvage 4 vehicle that is currently titled as a salvage vehicle and holds it for resale or accepts 5 a vehicle for sale on consignment, the dealer may not submit to the department the 6 certificate of title or application for certificate of title naming the dealer as owner of 7 the vehicle. Upon transferring the vehicle to another person, the dealer shall 8 immediately give the transferee on a form prescribed by the department a receipt for 16 next business day after processing the application, the dealer shall mail or deliver

18 department to the department. A nonresident who purchases a motor vehicle from 19 a dealer in this state may not, unless otherwise authorized by rule of the department, 20 apply for a certificate of title issued for the vehicle in this state unless the dealer 21 determines that a title is necessary to protect the interests of a secured party. The 22 dealer is responsible for determining whether a title and perfection of security 23 interest is required. The dealer is liable for any damages incurred by the department

1 or any secured party for the dealer's failure to perfect a security interest which the 2 dealer had knowledge of at the time of sale.

NOTE: 2007 Wis. Act 20, section 3244b, amended s. 343.14 (2) (br), as affected by 2007 Wis. Act 20, section 3243. Section 3244b changed a reference to the department of workforce development to be a reference to the department of children and families, while section 3243 made various changes related to implementing the federal REAL ID act.
Section 3244b took effect on 7-1-08; however, section 3243 has not taken effect, because its effective date is contingent upon an event that has not yet occurred. (See section 9448 (1) of Act 20 for the effective date.) This SECTION repeals and recreates the provision so that it reflects the changes made by section 3244b, but not the changes made by section 3243, effective immediately. The following SECTION amends the provision, as affected by this SECTION, so that it reflects the changes made by section 3243, effective on the date that section 3243 takes effect or on the day after publication of this bill, whichever is later.

4     is invalid if the statement is false.
