1 AN ACT to amend 946.41 (title); and to create 946.41 (2r) of the statutes;
2 relating to: causing injury to a law enforcement officer while resisting or 3 obstructing an officer or while attempting to flee and providing a penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a person who intentionally resists or obstructs a law enforcement officer is guilty of a Class A misdemeanor, and a person who intentionally causes bodily harm to a law enforcement officer is guilty of a Class H felony. Under this bill, a person who causes bodily harm to a law enforcement officer while the person is resisting, obstructing, fleeing from, or attempting to flee from, a law enforcement officer is guilty of a Class H felony.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report concerning the proposed penalty and the costs or savings that are likely to result if the bill is enacted.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
