Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill updates the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act (UIFSA) under current law. UIFSA sets out rules and priorities for the exercise of jurisdiction by courts in this state in actions to establish or enforce spousal or child support obligations, to modify child support obligations, or to determine paternity, when the parties reside in different states or when orders have been issued in different states. By setting out such rules and priorities, UIFSA aims to eliminate the possibility that conflicting support orders might be issued or enforced by courts in different states.

The bill primarily reorganizes provisions in current law and makes various nonsubstantive terminology or technical changes and minor substantive changes. One of the main changes the bill makes is to clarify UIFSA's application to foreign countries, in recognition of and conformity with the ratification by the United States of the Convention on the International Recovery of Child Support and Other Forms of Family Maintenance, concluded at The Hague on November 23, 2007 (convention). The purpose of the convention is to provide international procedures for enforcing child support orders when the person who is liable for the support and the child do not live in the same country. Whereas under current law "state" is defined to include a "foreign jurisdiction that has enacted a law or established procedures for issuance and enforcement of support orders that are substantially similar to the procedures under .... the Uniform Reciprocal Enforcement of Support Act ...." so that a reference to a "state" in current law includes a reference to a foreign country, this bill eliminates a foreign jurisdiction from the definition of "state" and adds "foreign country" to the statutory text wherever appropriate. For example, current law provides that a court in this state may forward proceedings to, and receive proceedings from, a court of another state, which would include a foreign jurisdiction. The bill provides that a court in this state may forward proceedings to a court of another state and receive proceedings initiated in another state or a foreign country. As another example, current law provides that if a proceeding related to child support is brought in this state and two or more child support orders regarding the same child and obligor have been issued by courts of this or another state, a court of this state must apply certain rules to determine which child support order to recognize for purposes of continuing jurisdiction. Under the bill, the court must use the same rules for determining which child support order controls and must be recognized, and adds that one or more of the child support orders may have been issued in a foreign country. In the bill, "foreign country" is defined as a country other than the U.S. that authorizes the issuance of support orders and that has been declared under the laws of the U.S. to be a foreign reciprocating country, that has established a reciprocal arrangement for child support with this state, that has enacted a law or established procedures for issuing and enforcing support orders that are substantially similar to UIFSA, or that is one in which the convention is in force with respect to the U.S.

Among substantive changes to current law, the bill does the following:

1. Provides that a court of this state that enforces current support or collects arrearages of support due under a support order issued in another state or a foreign country must apply the procedures and remedies of this state when doing so.
2. Provides the process and notification requirements when a party registering (filing) a support order issued in another state with a court of this state asserts that two or more support orders are in effect.

SENATE BILL 473

3. Provides that in a proceeding to modify a support order issued in another state, the law of the other state governs the duration of the obligation and a court of this state may not impose a further obligation of support.

4. Provides that a court in this state may assume jurisdiction to modify a child support order issued in a foreign country, and bind all individuals who are subject to the court's personal jurisdiction, if the foreign country lacks or refuses to exercise jurisdiction to modify the order, and that the order issued by the court of this state modifying the foreign child support order is the controlling order.

5. Provides procedures for a person to file a direct request for the establishment or modification of a support order involving an obligor, obligee, or child who lives outside the United States.

6. Provides procedures and requirements, in accordance with the convention, for registering with a court in this state a foreign support order or agreement for recognition and enforcement; specifies the types of proceedings that are available under the convention; provides procedures and requirements for contesting a registered support order; provides grounds for a court to refuse to recognize such an order; and, with limited exceptions, prohibits a court in this state from modifying a foreign support order if the obligor remains a resident of the foreign country.

21 and enforcement of a foreign support order or foreign support agreement.

22           769.706 Registration of convention support order. (1) Except as 20 recognition and partial enforcement of the order.

21           (4) A tribunal of this state may vacate the registration of a convention support
22 order without the filing of a contest under s. 769.707 only if, acting on its own motion,

24 incompatible with public policy.

SENATE BILL 473

1           (5) The tribunal shall promptly notify the parties of the registration or the
2 order vacating the registration of a convention support order.

9 notice of the registration.

10          (3) If the nonregistering party fails to contest the registered convention
11 support order by the time specified in sub. (2), the order is enforceable.

12          (4) A contest of a registered convention support order may be based only on 13 grounds set forth in s. 769.708. The contesting party bears the burden of proof.

14          (5) In a contest of a registered convention support order, all of the following
15 apply to a tribunal of this state:

16           (a) The tribunal is bound by the findings of fact on which the foreign tribunal
17 based its jurisdiction.

18           (b) The tribunal may not review the merits of the order.

19          (6) A tribunal of this state deciding a contest of a registered convention support
20 order shall promptly notify the parties of its decision.

21          (7) A challenge or appeal, if any, does not stay the enforcement of a convention
22 support order unless there are exceptional circumstances.

23          769.708 Recognition and enforcement of registered convention
24 support order. (1) Except as otherwise provided in sub. (2), a tribunal of this state
25 shall recognize and enforce a registered convention support order.

1           (2) The following grounds are the only grounds on which a tribunal of this state
2 may refuse recognition and enforcement of a registered convention support order:

3           (a) Recognition and enforcement of the order is manifestly incompatible with
4 public policy, including the failure of the issuing tribunal to observe minimum
5 standards of due process, which include notice and an opportunity to be heard.

6           (b) The issuing tribunal lacked personal jurisdiction consistent with s. 769.201.

7           (c) The order is not enforceable in the issuing country.

8           (d) The order was obtained by fraud in connection with a matter of procedure.

9           (e) A record transmitted in accordance with s. 769.706 lacks authenticity or 10 integrity.

11           (f) A proceeding between the same parties and having the same purpose is 12 pending before a tribunal of this state and that proceeding was the first to be filed.

13           (g) The order is incompatible with a more recent support order involving the 14 same parties and having the same purpose, if the more recent support order is 15 entitled to recognition and enforcement under this chapter in this state.

16           (h) Payment, to the extent alleged arrears have been paid in whole or in part.

17           (i) In a case in which the respondent neither appeared nor was represented in 18 the proceeding in the issuing foreign country, if either of the following applies:

19           1. If the law of that country provides for prior notice of proceedings, the 20 respondent did not have proper notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to be 21 heard.

22           2. If the law of that country does not provide for prior notice of the proceedings,
23 the respondent did not have proper notice of the order and an opportunity to be heard
24 in a challenge or appeal on fact or law before a tribunal.

25           (j) The order was made in violation of s. 769.711.

SENATE BILL 473

1           (3) If a tribunal of this state does not recognize a convention support order
2 under sub. (2) (b), (d), (f), or (i), both of the following apply:

3           (a) The tribunal may not dismiss the proceeding without allowing a reasonable
4 time for a party to request the establishment of a new convention support order.

5           (b) The department shall take all appropriate measures to request a child
6 support order for the obligee if the application for recognition and enforcement was 7 received under s. 769.704.

8           769.709 Partial enforcement. If a tribunal of this state does not recognize
9 and enforce a convention support order in its entirety, it shall enforce any severable
10 part of the order. An application or direct request may seek recognition and partial 11 enforcement of a convention support order.

12           769.710 Foreign support agreement. (1) Except as otherwise provided in 13 subs. (3) and (4), a tribunal of this state shall recognize and enforce a foreign support
14 agreement registered in this state.

15           (2) An application or direct request for recognition and enforcement of a foreign
16 support agreement must be accompanied by all of the following:

17           (a) A complete text of the foreign support agreement.

18           (b) A record stating that the foreign support agreement is enforceable as a
19 decision in the issuing country.

20           (3) A tribunal of this state may vacate the registration of the foreign support
21 agreement only if, acting on its own motion, the tribunal finds that recognition and 22 enforcement would be manifestly incompatible with public policy.

23           (4) In a contest of a foreign support agreement, a tribunal of this state may 24 refuse recognition and enforcement of the agreement if it finds any of the following:

SENATE BILL 473

1 (a) Recognition and enforcement of the agreement is manifestly incompatible
2 with public policy.

3 (b) The agreement was obtained by fraud or falsification.

4 (c) The agreement is incompatible with a support order involving the same
5 parties and having the same purpose in this state, another state, or a foreign country,
6 if the support order is entitled to recognition and enforcement under this chapter in 7 this state.

8 (d) The record submitted under sub. (2) lacks authenticity or integrity.

9 (5) A proceeding for recognition and enforcement of a foreign support
10 agreement shall be suspended during the pendency of a challenge to or appeal of the 11 agreement before a tribunal of another state or a foreign country.

12 769.711 Modification of convention child support order. (1) A tribunal
13 of this state may not modify a convention child support order if the obligee remains 14 a resident of the foreign country where the support order was issued, unless any of 15 the following applies:

16 (a) The obligee submits to the jurisdiction of a tribunal of this state, either
17 expressly or by defending on the merits of the case without objecting to the 18 jurisdiction at the first available opportunity.

19 (b) The foreign tribunal lacks or refuses to exercise jurisdiction to modify its 20 support order or issue a new support order.

21 (2) If a tribunal of this state does not modify a convention child support order
22 because the order is not recognized in this state, s. 769.708 (3) applies:

23 769.712 Personal information; limit on use. Personal information
24 gathered or transmitted under this subchapter may be used only for the purposes for 25 which it was gathered or transmitted.

SENATE BILL 473

2 with a tribunal of this state under this subchapter must be in the original language
3 and, if not in English, must be accompanied by an English translation.

4           SECTION 169. 769.802 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

11 investigate the demand and report whether a proceeding for support has been 12 initiated or would be effective. If it appears that a proceeding would be effective but 13 has not been initiated, the governor may delay honoring the demand for a reasonable
14 time to permit the initiation of a proceeding.
