

DRAFTER'S NOTE FROM THE LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

LRBa1921/1dn
PJK:kjf:rs

March 26, 2010

I assumed that by “rental period” you meant the time intervals (such as each month) in which rent is payable, since the actual “rental period” would be the lease term, which could be a year or more. If you can think of better language for the definition, please let me know.

This amendment will not work if rent is payable less often than at least every two months. I do not know if there are any leases for which this is the case, but it is certainly possible.

Pamela J. Kahler
Senior Legislative Attorney
Phone: (608) 266-2682
E-mail: pam.kahler@legis.wisconsin.gov