Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

Under Chapter 946.70 (2), whoever impersonates a peace officer with the intent to commit or aid or abet the commission of a crime is guilty of a Class H felony. Under 2009 Assembly Bill 324, whoever impersonates a fire fighter or emergency medical technician with intent to commit or aid or abet the commission of a crime is guilty of a Class H felony.

While most felony prosecutions are handled by district attorneys, assistant attorneys general in the Department of Justice's Criminal Litigation Unit on occasion act as special prosecutors throughout Wisconsin at the request of district attorneys. In addition, the Department of Justice's Criminal Appeals Unit represents the State of Wisconsin in defending felony convictions when those convictions are challenged in state or federal court. Under Wisconsin law, this unit is charged with preparing briefs and presenting arguments in front of any state appellate or federal court hearing a challenge to a felony conviction.

Since AB 324 broadens the types of activities that can be prosecuted as felonies, enactment of the bill could result in an increased caseload for DOJ's Criminal Litigation and Criminal Appeals Units. DOJ anticipates that any increase in its caseload would be relatively small. However, if the increase is larger than expected, DOJ will require additional resources to handle the larger legal caseload.
