Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill authorizes a local governmental unit to repeal its comprehensive plan and provides that ordinances that currently must be consistent with a local governmental unit's comprehensive plan must be consistent with the plan only if the local governmental unit has a comprehensive plan in effect. The bill also eliminates $2 million and the grant program that assists local governments with the costs of comprehensive planning.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

The bill eliminates $2 million for the grant program that assists with the costs of comprehensive planning for local governmental units.
