1 AN ACT to amend 11.06 (1) (b) of the statutes; relating to: reporting of the 2 principal place of employment of certain individuals who make political
3 contributions.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Currently, with limited exceptions, each registrant under the campaign finance law must file periodic reports with the appropriate filing officer or agency specified by law. The reports must contain specified information, including the occupation and the name and address of the principal place of employment, if any, of each individual contributor whose cumulative contributions for the calendar year exceed $100 in amount or value.

This bill deletes the requirement to report the name and address of the principal place of employment, if any, of these contributors.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

4 SECTION 1. 11.06 (1) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:
5 11.06 (1) (b) ~~The occupation and name and address of the principal place of~~
6 ~~employment, if any,~~ of each individual contributor whose cumulative contributions
7 for the calendar year are in excess of $100.
