Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

EXPLANATION OF PROPOSAL

This proposed constitutional amendment, proposed to the 2011 legislature on first consideration, grants a right to employees to collectively bargain on the subjects of wages, hours, and working conditions.

A proposed constitutional amendment requires adoption by two successive legislatures, and ratification by the people, before it can become effective.

3             Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That:

4             SECTION 1. Section 14 of article XIII of the constitution is created to read:

5             [Article XIII] Section 14. Employees shall have the right to collectively bargain
6             on the subjects of wages, hours, and working conditions.

7             SECTION 2. Numbering of new provisions. If another constitutional
8             amendment ratified by the people creates the number of any provision created in this
9             joint resolution, the chief of the legislative reference bureau shall determine the

1 sequencing and the numbering of the provisions whose numbers conflict and adjust
2 any cross-references thereto.

3 Be it further resolved, That this proposed amendment be referred to the 4 legislature to be chosen at the next general election and that it be published for three
5 months previous to the time of holding such election.
