Subject: Resolution Drafting Request

Hi Rick-

Can we have a constitutional amendment resolution drafted that would allow public employees the right to collectively bargain in Wisconsin? The intent is to put into the constitution the rights public employees had before they were taken away in the recent bill.

Let me know if you need any further information.

If someone else should draft this resolution could you pass it on to the appropriate person?

Thank you,

Regards,

G. Stuart Ewy

Gen

1 Relating to: collective bargaining by public employees (first consideration).

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

EXPLANATION OF PROPOSAL

This proposed constitutional amendment, proposed to the 2011 legislature on first consideration, grants a right to public employees to collectively bargain on the subjects of wages, hours, and working conditions.

A proposed constitutional amendment requires adoption by two successive legislatures, and ratification by the people, before it can become effective.

2 Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That:

3 SECTION 1. Section 14 of article XIII of the constitution is created to read:

4 [Article XIII] Section 14 ¹Public employees shall have the right to collectively
5 bargain on the subjects of wages, hours, and working conditions.

6 SECTION 2. Numbering of new provisions. If another constitutional
7 amendment ratified by the people creates the number of any provision created in this
8 joint resolution, the chief of the legislative reference bureau shall determine the

1 sequencing and the numbering of the provisions whose numbers conflict and adjust
2 any cross-references thereto.

3 Be it further resolved, That this proposed amendment be referred to the 4 legislature to be chosen at the next general election and that it be published for three
5 months previous to the time of holding such election.
