Additional drafting instructions for constitutional amendment

Hi, Steve,

I need to put additional details in the constitutional amendment. I also want to specify that the Commission's apportionment plan must be approved by voters in a statewide referendum. If the voters reject it, then the Wisconsin Supreme Court must come up with an apportionment plan which then becomes law.

Subject: Drafting request for constitutional amendment

Hi, Steve,

Will you please draft for Sen. Tim Cullen an amendment to Article 4, Section 3 of the Constitution that removes apportionment responsibility from the Legislature and gives it to an Independent Apportionment Commission, to be created by law. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Kelley Flury Office of Sen. Tim Cullen 608-266-2253

State of Misconsin 2011 - 2012 LEGISLATURE

PRELIMINARY DRAFT - NOT READY FOR INTRODUCTION 2011 ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTION

(in 11-15)

Gen

Relating to: a legislative reapportionment commission (first consideration).

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This constitutional amendment, proposed to the 2011 legislature on first consideration, removes the responsibility to reapportion the legislature from the legislature and assigns it to an independent reapportionment commission to be created by law. The commission's plan must be submitted to the voters in a referendum. If the voters reject the plan, the supreme court must draw a reapportionment plan which then becomes law.

A proposed constitutional amendment requires adoption by two successive legislatures, and ratification by the people, before it can become effective.

Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That:

Section 1. Section 3(1) of article IV of the constitution is created to read:

[Article IV] Section 3 (1) The legislature shall provide by law for the establishment of an independent legislative reapportionment commission.

SECTION 2. Section 3 of article IV of the constitution is renumbered/3 (2) and

SECTION 3. Section 3 (3) of article IV of the constitution is created to read:

[Article IV] Section 3 (3) The plan shall be submitted to the people at the next scheduled general election. If the people approve the plan it shall become law. If the people reject the plan, the supreme court shall draw a plan which shall become law.

SECTION 4. Numbering of new provisions. If another constitutional amendment ratified by the people creates the number of any provision created in this joint resolution, the chief of the legislative reference bureau shall determine the sequencing and the numbering of the provisions whose numbers conflict and shall adjust any cross-references to those provisions.

Be it further resolved, That this proposed amendment be referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election and that it be published for 3 months previous to the time of holding such election.

Miller, Steve One more thing

Sen. Cullen just mentioned to me that we want to make it clear that the Independent Redistricting Commission would first be appointed for purposes of 2021 redistricting. Do we have to make that explicit in the constitutional amendment? I think his concern is that people might think we are trying to change the existing maps that the Republicans drew.
