Cathleen,

We've had a change of plans... we can hold on the mandatory hearing one.

Sen. Zipperer is only allowing Sen. Risser/Erpenbach two amendments. We'd like two amendments drafted as following:

Amendment #1: omnibus of these amendments

LRB 1125--Access to records by law enforcement; Availability of information on permit holders under open records law

LRB 1123—training requirement

LRB 1135--Remove all criminal penalties for law enforcement that are currently in the sub.

LRB 1136--Require the DOJ to certify the state is capturing and including in the state and federal background check databases at least a minimum of 95% of criminal, mental health, or any records which are needed to determine status before issuing status (and to know if someone may not legally carry under license, open or licensed concealed)

LRB 1119—prohibits carry while under the influence of drugs or alcohol; violation a class I felony

LRB 1140--An owner of a multi family residence may post and exclude carry weapons from common areas in the building

LRB 1134—possession in prohibited location a Class A misdemeanor offense

LRB 1138--Remove the provision in the substitute which allows for application fraud – applications must be made in person

LRB 1126—prohibits carry in any building that is used by a county department of human services

LRB 1120—prohibits issuing a license to carry to someone who has been convicted of a violation of the controlled substances act.

LRB 1141--Allow an employer to prohibit all carry weapons in business property and in business vehicles (are property of business)

LRB 1122—requires courts to report findings of misdemeanor crimes of domestic violence
