2           (4); and to create 807.01 (4) (b) and 815.05 (8) (b) of the statutes; relating to:

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, interest accrues on a judgment involving the recovery of money at the rate of 12 percent per year from the date of entry of judgment until the judgment is paid. Also under current law, if an offer of settlement is made and rejected, the party making the offer of settlement prevails, and the judgment is greater than or equal to the offer of settlement, interest accrues on the amount recovered at the rate of 12 percent from the date of the offer of settlement until the amount is paid.

This bill changes the interest rate on judgments for the recovery of money in civil actions in tort, in actions brought by a customer to enforce rights under Wisconsin's Consumer Act, and in consumer protection actions commenced by the Department of Agriculture, Trade and Consumer Protection (DATCP) to an annual rate of 1 percent plus the prime rate in effect on the day the judgment is entered, as reported by the Federal Reserve Board, until the amount is paid. This bill also changes the interest rate on amounts recovered by a party who prevails in a civil action in tort or, if the party is a customer, in an action brought to enforce rights under the Wisconsin Consumer Act, or in a consumer protection action commenced by DATCP, after that party made an offer of settlement that was rejected, to an annual rate of 1 percent plus the prime rate, as reported by the Federal Reserve Board, in effect on the day the judgment is entered from the date of the offer of settlement until the amount is paid.
