The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

3 SECTION 1. 814.045 of the statutes is created to read:

4 814.045 Attorney fees; reasonableness. (1) Subject to sub. (2), in any action
5 involving the award of attorney fees that are not governed by s. 814.04 (1) or 6 involving a dispute over the reasonableness of attorney fees, the court shall, in 7 determining whether to award attorney fees and in determining whether the 8 attorney fees are reasonable, consider all of the following:

9 (a) The time and labor required by the attorney.

10 (b) The novelty and difficulty of the questions involved in the action.

1 (c) The skill requisite to perform the legal service properly.

2 (d) The likelihood that the acceptance of the particular case precluded other
3 employment by the attorney.

4 (e) The fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services.

5 (f) The amount of damages involved in the action.

6 (g) The results obtained in the action.

7 (h) The time limitations imposed by the client or by the circumstances of the 8 action.

9 (i) The nature and length of the attorney's professional relationship with his
10 or her client.

11 (j) The experience, reputation, and ability of the attorney.

12 (k) Whether the fee is fixed or contingent.

13 (L) The complexity of the case.

14 (m) Awards of costs and fees in similar cases.

15 (n) The legitimacy or strength of any defenses or affirmative defenses asserted
16 in the action.

17 (p) Other factors the court deems important or necessary to consider under the 18 circumstances of the case.

19 (2) (a) In any action in which compensatory damages are awarded, the court
20 shall presume that reasonable attorney fees do not exceed 3 times the amount of the 21 compensatory damages awarded but this presumption may be overcome if the court
22 determines, after considering the factors set forth in sub. (1), that a greater amount
23 is reasonable.

24 (b) In any action in which compensatory damages are not awarded but 25 injunctive or declaratory relief, rescission or modification, or specific performance is

1 ordered, reasonable attorney fees shall be determined according to the factors set
2 forth in sub. (1).

3 (3) This section does not abrogate the rights of persons to enter into an
4 agreement for attorney fees, and the court shall presume that such an agreement is 5 reasonable.

6 (END)
