I think we are ok with both being a hybrid considering the inclusion of the increased fine...keeps things more consistent.

Correct. And with that change, if you wanted to, you could make violations punishable under s. 813.12 (8) Class A misdemeanors. Violations under s. 813.125 (7) would still be a hybrid, though, with only a max of 90 days in jail. If you want that change, the wording in 973.09 (2) will need a little tinkering.

Hi Peggy~

I reviewed this with Dennis and this works perfectly! Thank you so much...my apology for the hassle. We will still make the change to increase the fine to $10,000 under s. 813.12 (8) or 813.125 (7), correct?

Hi Melissa and Dennis,

I think it does work best to put the new language in s. 973.09, along with the other exceptions. What do you think of this language:

Section 13m. 973.09 (2) (ar) of the statutes is created to read:

973.09 (2) (ar) Notwithstanding par. (a) 1r., and except as provided in par. (a) 2., for a violation punishable under s. 813.12 (8) or 813.125 (7), not less than 6 months or more than the period of the injunction issued under s. 813.12 or 813.125."

2011 SENATE BILL 104

May 24, 2011 - Introduced by Senators ZIPPERER, CARPENTER, GALLOWAY, HANSEN, HARSDORF, MOULTON, VINEHOUT and WANGGAARD, cosponsored by Representatives AUGUST, KERKMAN, SUDER, BERNIER, BROOKS, FARROW, HONADEL, KAUFERT, KLEEFISCH, KOOYENGA, KRAMER, KUGLITSCH, LEMAHIEU, MARKLEIN, MILROY, A. OTT, PASCH, PETERSEN, SPANBAUER, STEINEKE, ZEPNICK and ZIEGELBAUER. Referred to Committee on Judiciary, Utilities, Commerce, and Government Operations.

1 AN ACT to amend 16.705 (1n), 16.71 (5m), 20.410 (1) (gk) (title), 946.465, 971.37
2 (1m) (c) 1. (intro.) and 971.37 (1m) (c) 2.; and to create 20.410 (1) (gL), 301.49,
3 813.129, 814.75 (8m), 969.02 (3) (e), 973.05 (2m) (jm) and 973.057 of the 4 statutes; relating to: requiring persons who violate certain restraining orders
5 or injunctions to be monitored by a global positioning system, granting
6 rule-making authority, making an appropriation, and providing a penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, an individual who is, or who acts on behalf of, a victim of abuse, harassment, or threats may obtain a temporary restraining order against the person who has committed the acts of abuse, harassment, or making a threat. The restraining order bars the person from contacting the victim and requires the person to stay away from the victim's residence and other places temporarily occupied by the victim until a court conducts a hearing to determine whether the restraining order should be incorporated into a longer lasting injunction.

If the court determines that the person has engaged in, or may engage in, acts of abuse, harassment, or threats against the victim, the court may issue an injunction against the person. An injunction may stay in effect for up to four years and bars the person from contacting the victim, requires the person to stay away from the victim's residence, and may require the person to stay away from other locations temporarily occupied by the victim.

SENATE BILL 104

A person who violates a restraining order or an injunction may be fined up to $1,000 and imprisoned for up to nine months, except that a person who violates a restraining order or injunction that was issued only for harassment faces the same fine but may be imprisoned for up to 90 days.

This bill allows a court to order a person who is convicted of violating a restraining order or an injunction to submit, for the duration of the restraining order or injunction, to global positioning system (GPS) tracking by the Department of Corrections (DOC). The bill also allows a court to order, as a condition of release, a person who is charged with violating a restraining order or an injunction to submit to GPS tracking. The bill requires the court to consider a request for GPS tracking by a district attorney or by the individual who asked for the restraining order.

Under the bill, DOC must monitor the person's whereabouts with a GPS device and, if the person enters into an area that he or she is required to avoid under the terms of the restraining order or injunction, DOC must immediately notify local law enforcement and the victim. Under the bill, a person who violates a restraining order is required to pay a $200 surcharge in addition to his or her fine that will be used toward the costs of GPS tracking. Under the bill, the court may order the person to pay for the costs of GPS tracking. The bill makes it a Class I felony, punishable by a fine up to $10,000, imprisonment for up to three years and six months, or both, for a person to tamper with the GPS device.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report concerning the proposed penalty and the costs or savings that are likely to result if the bill is enacted.

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

13 (c) An explanation of the failure rates associated with global positioning system
14 tracking programs and an explanation of situations in which a person may not be 15 detected by the tracking program.

16 SECTION 6. 813.129 of the statutes is created to read:

17 813.129 Global positioning system tracking. (1) If a person knowingly

24 person is ^{more likely than not} likely to cause serious bodily harm to the person who petitioned for the

SENATE BILL 104

1 restraining order or injunction ^{the pet.} poses a serious threat to public safety, or is likely to
2 intimidate witnesses, weighing the following factors:

3 (a) Whether the person has allegedly caused physical injury, intentionally
4 abused pets or damaged property, or committed sexual assault, an act of

20 who petitioned for the restraining order or injunction with a referral to a domestic 21 violence or sexual assault victim service provider.

22 (5) If, after weighing the factors set forth under sub. (2), the court determines 23 that a person is likely to cause serious bodily harm to the person who petitioned for 24 the restraining order or injunction, poses a serious threat to public safety, or is likely
25 to intimidate witnesses, and the court determines that another alternative,

SENATE BILL 104

1 including imprisonment, is more likely to protect the person who petitioned for the 2 restraining order or injunction or the public or more likely to prevent the
3 intimidation of witnesses, the court may not enter an order under sub. (1).

4 SECTION 7. 814.75 (8m) of the statutes is created to read:

5 814.75 (8m) The global positioning system tracking surcharge under s. 971.37
