Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

Currently courts are to consider aggravating factors when a person, who is legally responsible for a child's welfare, is convicted of certain crimes. This bill requires the sentencing court to consider an additional aggravating factor. Because this bill requires further consideration by the court, but does not require additional action by prosecutors, District Attorneys do not anticipate a fiscal impact on their offices if this bill is enacted.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

For the reasons stated above, no long-term fiscal impact is expected should this bill be implemented.
