2011 Wisconsin Act 158 is remedial legislation suggested by the Department of Public Instruction (DPI). The Act does the following:

- Deletes a reference to a nonstatutory provision providing funding in school years 2005-06 and 2006-07 to the Second Chance Partnership to create a pilot work-based learning program.
- Changes the name of the Division for Libraries and Community Learning in DPI to the Division for Libraries and Technology.
- Changes the name of the Reference and Loan Collection to Resources for Libraries and Lifelong Learning Collection.
- Changes the name of the Division of Learning Support, Equity, and Advocacy to the Division of Learning Support.
- Provides that a public library system is eligible for state aid if it, among other requirements, has the written agreements with all member libraries regarding their participation in the public library system.
