Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Currently, the Legislative Reference Bureau compiles and publishes biennially the Wisconsin Blue Book. The Blue Book must contain the biographies and pictures of state officers, including all senators and representatives to the assembly and the officers of each house, information relating to the organization of Wisconsin state government, and statistical and other general information relating to Wisconsin’s history, economy, recreation, and culture. The Blue Book is required to be compiled in such a way as to make it useful in civics classes in schools. The statutes require specified numbers of copies to be distributed at state expense to legislators and other state and local agencies and officials, public libraries, document depositories, colleges, technical colleges, and public and private schools, and newspapers.

This bill discontinues compilation, publication, and distribution of the Wisconsin Blue Book following with the 2011–12 edition.
The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 1.10 (4) of the statutes is repealed.

pages thereafter to be printed shall be reduced to such number as will supply such demand and no more. In like manner, any specification as to quantity in any
