AN ACT to amend 48.981 (2) (e) and 48.981 (8) (c); and to create 48.981 (2) (a) 16m., 48.981 (8) (am) and 118.07 (5) of the statutes; relating to: mandatory reporting of child abuse or neglect by school district employees; training in child abuse and neglect identification, laws, and procedures for those employees; retaliation against a person who reports child abuse or neglect in good faith, and granting rule-making authority.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law requires certain persons who have reasonable cause to suspect that a child seen in the course of professional duties has been abused or neglected or who has a reasonable belief that such a child has been threatened with abuse or neglect and that abuse or neglect will occur to report that suspected or threatened abuse or neglect to the county department of human services or social services or to the sheriff or city, village, or town police department. Currently, mandatory reporters of child abuse and neglect include school teachers, administrators, and counselors. This bill makes all public school employees mandatory child abuse and neglect reporters and requires those employees to receive training in identifying children who have been abused or neglected and in the laws and procedures governing the reporting of child abuse and neglect.

Current law prohibits any person who makes a child abuse or neglect report from being discharged from employment for doing so. This bill prohibits any person
