Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill creates an entity called the Capitol Council, which is given responsibility for the management, operation, maintenance, and repair of the state capitol and the capitol park. The council consists of the governor or his or her designee, the chief justice of the supreme court, the speaker of the assembly, the president of the senate, and one other member who is not a state officer or employee. The chief justice serves as chairperson. Currently, the Department of Administration (DOA) has responsibility for the management, operation, maintenance and repair of the capitol and capitol park. The bill transfers all assets, liabilities, positions, employees, tangible personal property, contracts, rules, orders, and pending matters of DOA that are primarily related to DOA's managerial responsibility for the capitol to the council. The bill also grants rule-making authority to the council to carry out its responsibilities with regard to management, operation, maintenance, repair, and security of the capitol and prescribes penalties for violations of the rules.

SENATE BILL 347

Currently, any proposed renovation or installation of fixtures, decorative items, or furnishings on the grounds of the capitol or executive residence is subject to the review and approval of the State Capitol and Executive Residence Board. Currently, the secretary of administration or his or her designee and an architect employed by DOA who is appointed by the secretary serve as members of the board. This bill substitutes the chairperson of the Capitol Council or the chairperson's designee and the architect of the capitol as members of the board.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report concerning the proposed penalty and the costs or savings that are likely to result if the bill is enacted.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
