DOA:.....Iwata, BB0260 – Estate recovery for Medical Assistance

FOR 2013-2015 BUDGET -- NOT READY FOR INTRODUCTION

AN ACT ...; relating to: the budget.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE

Under current law, DHS is required to recover the amount of certain benefits (recoverable public assistance benefits) provided to individuals under certain programs (public assistance programs) by making claims against the estates of the individuals or their spouses. Recoverable public assistance benefits include benefits provided to individuals with hemophilia, cystic fibrosis, or kidney disease under the disease aids program; benefits under certain long-term care programs, including family care; and medical assistance (MA) benefits provided to individuals residing in nursing homes. Also under current law, DHS may collect the amounts of those recoverable public assistance benefits provided to an individual or his or her spouse from the nonprobate property of the individual, by sending an affidavit to a person who possesses the property. Besides making the estate recovery provisions for each of the types of recoverable public assistance benefits consistent with one another and streamlining the nonprobate property recovery program so that it applies to all of the types of recoverable public assistance benefits, this bill makes some changes to those recoverable public assistance benefits recovery programs.

Current law does not define the property that is subject to recovery by DHS. The bill defines the property that is subject to recovery, both nonprobate property and property in an estate, as all real and personal property to which the individual who received the recoverable public assistance benefits under a public assistance program (recipient) held any legal title, or in which the recipient had any legal interest, immediately before death, including assets transferred to an heir or a survivor, such as jointly owned property or property transferred by a living trust. In addition, the property subject to recovery includes any real or personal property in which the recipient's spouse had an ownership interest at the recipient's death and in which the recipient had a marital property interest at any time within five years before the recipient applied for the public assistance program or during the time that the recipient was eligible for the public assistance program. The bill provides that there is a rebuttable presumption that all nonprobate property, and all property in the estate, of the recipient's deceased surviving spouse was marital property held with the recipient and that 100 percent of that property is subject to recovery by DHS. As under current law, however, DHS may not recover nonprobate property or property in an estate if the deceased person has a surviving spouse or a child who is under age 21 or disabled, in which case DHS receives a lien in the amount that it may recover on any real property included in the estate or nonprobate property.

The bill expands on the procedure under current law for recovery of nonprobate property. The bill specifies all of the following: what information must be provided in an affidavit by DHS to a person who possesses property of a decedent; what costs will be allowed if the property was real property and the person has sold the property; that the person receiving an affidavit has the right to a fair hearing on the value of the recipient's interest in the property and how the recipient's interest is determined; and that DHS may bring an action or issue an order to compel transmittal of the property if the person does not transmit the property to DHS after receiving an affidavit.

The bill establishes procedures for DHS to follow with respect to real property owned by a recipient, both before and after death. DHS must create three documents for recording in the office of the register of deeds: 1) a REQUEST FOR NOTICE OF TRANSFER OR ENCUMBRANCE AND NOTICE OF POTENTIAL CLAIM (REQUEST); 2) a TERMINATION OF REQUEST FOR NOTICE OF TRANSFER OR ENCUMBRANCE AND NOTICE OF POTENTIAL CLAIM (TERMINATION); 3) and a CERTIFICATE OF CLEARANCE (CLEARANCE). Whenever a recipient, upon becoming eligible for a public assistance program or during the time that the recipient is eligible for a public assistance program, has a current ownership interest in real property, or has a spouse with a current ownership interest in real property in which the recipient had a marital property interest at any time within the five years before applying for the public assistance program or during the time that the recipient is eligible for the public assistance program, DHS may record a REQUEST with respect to the property. Thereafter, unless DHS has recorded a TERMINATION or a CLEARANCE with respect to the property, any title insurance company or agent conducting a title search must note that a REQUEST is recorded against the property in any report for, or in any commitment to offer, a certificate of title insurance for the property. In addition, any person intending to transfer title to, encumber, or terminate an interest in, the property must notify DHS. If the recipient is alive when the notice is given, the person may transfer title to, encumber, or terminate an interest in, the property. If the recipient is deceased and DHS determines that it has no claim for recoverable public assistance benefits, DHS must issue a CLEARANCE to the person for recording. However, if the recipient is deceased and DHS determines that it does have a claim for recoverable public assistance benefits, DHS must send the person a statement of claim and may recover against the property in an appropriate manner, including by placing a lien on the property.

The bill sets out requirements for the enforcement of liens on real property by DHS for recovering recoverable public assistance benefits, including specifying that DHS may enforce such a lien in the same manner as a mortgage on real property; prohibiting DHS from enforcing such a lien if the recipient has a surviving spouse or a child who is under age 21 or disabled; and specifying the circumstances under which DHS must release such a lien if DHS cannot enforce the lien because the recipient has a surviving spouse or a child who is under age 21 or disabled. The bill also provides that a section of the statutes that, generally, imposes a 30-year statute of limitations on the commencement of actions affecting the possession or title to real property applies to liens that DHS has on real property for recovering recoverable public assistance benefits.

The bill specifies that certain transfers of real property are voidable by DHS in court actions, in which case title to the real property reverts to the grantor or his or her estate. A voidable transfer is one that satisfies all of the following criteria: the transfer was made by a grantor who was receiving or who received MA; the transfer was made while the grantor was eligible for MA; DHS was unaware of the transfer; and the transfer was made to hinder, delay, or defraud DHS from recovering MA paid on behalf of the grantor. The bill provides that there is a rebuttable presumption that any "fraudulent transfer" was made to hinder, delay, or defraud DHS from recovering MA if the transfer was made by a grantor who was receiving or who received MA and while the grantor was eligible for MA. The bill defines a "fraudulent transfer" as one in which the property was transferred for less than fair market value or one in which the deed or other conveyance was not recorded during the lifetime of the grantor.

The bill requires trustees of living trusts to notify DHS, within 30 days after the death of the trust settlor and before any assets are distributed, if the trust settlor, or his or her predeceased spouse, received any recoverable public assistance benefits. If DHS sends the trustee a claim for the recovery of recoverable public assistance benefits, the trustee must, within 90 days, pay DHS the amount that it may recover or provide DHS with information about any property that was distributed and to whom it was distributed. The bill requires a trustee of a special needs or pooled trust, the beneficiaries of which receive MA, to provide notice to DHS within 30 days after the death of a trust beneficiary, and to repay DHS, within 90 days after receiving a claim from DHS, for the amount of MA paid on behalf of the beneficiary. If the trustee fails to comply with the notice or repayments requirements, the trustee is personally liable to DHS for any MA amounts paid on behalf of the beneficiary that DHS is unable to recover. The bill also provides that, after the death of a beneficiary under a pooled trust, the trustee may retain up to 30 percent of the balance in the deceased beneficiary's account, unless the trustee fails to comply with the notice and repayment requirements, in which case the trustee may not retain any of the balance in the deceased beneficiary's account.

(3) TRANSMITTAL OF PROPERTY UPON RECEIPT OF AFFIDAVIT. (a) Any property of a decedent that is transferred by a person who has possession of the property at the time of the decedent's death is subject to the right of the department to recover the amounts specified in sub. (d) A property's fair market value is the price that a willing buyer would pay a willing seller for the purchase of the property. The burden of proof for establishing a property's fair market value is on the surviving owners or beneficiaries, or their representatives. (b) If any person named in an order to compel transmittal of property issued under par. (a) fails to transmit the property under the terms of the order and no contested case to review the order is pending and the time for filing for a contested case review has expired, the department may present a certified copy of the order to the circuit court for any county. The sworn statement of the secretary shall be evidence of the department's right to collect amounts specified in sub. (2) (a) from the property and of the person's failure to transmit the property to the department. The circuit court shall, without notice, render judgment in accordance with the order. A judgment rendered under this paragraph shall have the same effect and shall be entered in the judgment and lien docket and may be enforced in the same manner as if the judgment had been rendered in an action tried and determined by the circuit court.
