Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

REGULATION OF METALLIC MINING

Processing application for mining permit

Under current law, a person who proposes to mine for metallic minerals must obtain a mining permit from the Department of Natural Resources (DNR), as well as any other permit, license, certification, or other authorization that is required under other environmental and natural resources laws (approval).

Current law requires DNR to prepare an environmental impact statement (EIS) for every proposed metallic mine. After the EIS is finalized, DNR must hold a public hearing (called the master hearing), that includes a public informational hearing and a contested case hearing with sworn testimony and the opportunity for cross-examination, before acting on the application for the mining permit and other approvals. Current law does not specify a time, after the application for a mining permit is filed, within which DNR must act on a mining permit application. It does require the master hearing to be held between 120 days and 180 days after DNR issues the EIS and requires DNR to act on the permit application within 90 days after the completion of the record for the master hearing.

Under this bill, DNR must hold a public informational hearing after the EIS for a proposed metallic mine is finalized. After the public informational hearing, the bill requires DNR to hold a contested case hearing covering the application for the mining permit and other approvals if any person notifies DNR that the person wishes to be a party within 30 days after DNR provides notice about the contested case hearing. The bill requires DNR to give the notice no more than 520 days after the application for the mining permit is complete, unless the deadline is extended as provided in the bill. The bill authorizes DNR to extend the deadline for a total of not more than 180 days if the applicant changes its proposal for the mine or if additional time is needed to ensure collaboration with a federal agency with responsibilities related to the proposed mine or to evaluate new information related to the mine. The bill authorizes the applicant to extend the deadline as often and for as long as it decides is necessary. The bill also authorizes DNR and the applicant to negotiate an agreement for a timeline for processing the mining permit application that includes a different deadline for DNR to provide notice of the contested case hearing.

The bill requires that the contested case hearing on a proposed metallic mine be concluded and the record of the hearing be completed no more than 680 days after the application for the mining permit is complete, except that if the deadline for providing notice concerning the contested case hearing is extended, the deadline for concluding the hearing and completing the record of the hearing is extended by the same number of days. The bill requires DNR to act on the application for the mining permit and other approvals no more than 730 days after the application for the mining permit is complete, except that if the deadline for providing notice concerning the contested case hearing is extended, the deadline for acting on the applications is extended by the same number of days.

Processing application for prospecting permit

Under current law, a person may not prospect for metallic ore without a prospecting permit from DNR. Prospecting is examining an area to determine the quantity and quality of metallic minerals by means other than drilling, for example, by excavating. Under current law, an EIS is not mandatory for proposed prospecting. DNR determines whether it must prepare an EIS for prospecting in the same way that it determines whether it must prepare an EIS for other actions for which an EIS is not mandatory. Under current law, the rest of the procedure for processing an application for a prospecting permit is similar to that for processing the application for a mining permit.

This bill provides an expedited procedure for processing a prospecting permit if the application for the permit shows that less than 10,000 tons of material is proposed to be excavated. Under the expedited process:

1. An EIS is not required.
2. DNR must hold a public informational hearing.
3. DNR must act on the application for the prospecting permit and, generally, for other approvals covered in the informational hearing no later than 60 days after the application for the prospecting permit is complete.
4. No contested case hearing is available on the application for the permit or for other approvals covered in the informational hearing.

For an application for a prospecting permit to which the expedited process does not apply, the bill makes changes to the permitting process that are the similar to those made for processing the application for a mining permit, including the deadlines for DNR action.

Notice of intent

Under current law, a person who intends to apply for a permit for mining or prospecting for metallic ore must notify DNR before collecting data intended to be used to support the application.

This bill requires a person who intends to apply for a permit for mining for metallic ore, but not for prospecting, to provide notice of that intent at least 12 months before filing the application.

Collaboration

This bill requires DNR to do all of the following in relation to proposed metallic mining:

1. Provide assistance to a person who notifies DNR of the person's intent to apply for a mining or prospecting permit during the processes related to obtaining a permit.
2. Work and consult with American Indian tribes and bands during the processes related to proposed mining in which the tribes and bands have an interest.
3. Work with and provide assistance to other regulatory agencies, including local and federal agencies, during the processes relating to proposed mining in which the agencies have an interest.
4. Seek to enter into a memorandum of understanding with any federal agency with responsibilities related to a potential mining operation covering timelines and other issues of mutual concern.

5. Seek to be the lead agency in matters related to processing an application for a mining permit that are undertaken in coordination with a federal agency.

Irrevocable trust

Currently, DNR's rules on metallic mining require a person to whom a mining permit is issued to establish an irrevocable trust to ensure adequate funds to undertake preventive measures to avoid adverse environmental consequences and to take measures in response to a spill of hazardous substances or the failure of a mining waste facility to contain the waste. DNR determines the level of funding required based on the likelihood of the need for preventive or response measures and the range of costs of the measures.

Under this bill, the level of funding for the irrevocable trust for a metallic mine is equal to the sum of the following:

1. Twenty percent of the amount of the bond or other security required under current law to ensure the availability of funds for reclamation of the mining site.
2. Twenty percent of the amount of the bond or other security required under current law as proof of financial responsibility for closure and long-term care of the mining waste facility.

Recycling tipping fee

Current law imposes several fees, often referred to as tipping fees, on generators of solid waste that are based on the tonnage of solid waste disposed of at solid waste disposal facilities. The recycling tipping fee is $7 per ton. Under current law there are some exemptions from the recycling tipping fee and the other tipping fees.

The bill exempts metallic prospecting and mining waste from the recycling tipping fee.

Groundwater

Under current law, among other conditions, to approve the application for a permit for metallic mining DNR must find that the proposed mine will comply with groundwater laws and rules. Under the groundwater laws, DNR and the Department of Health Services establish groundwater quality standards for substances that contaminate groundwater. Also under current law, for certain facilities, such as waste disposal facilities, the groundwater law requires DNR to establish a three-dimensional design management zone (DMZ) within the property boundaries. DNR's current rules require the applicant for a mining permit to submit information based on predictive modeling to demonstrate whether there is a reasonable certainty that a mining waste facility will result in the violation of a groundwater standard beyond the DMZ. There is no time frame specified for this modeling.

This bill requires an applicant for a mining permit to submit information based on predictive modeling to demonstrate whether there is a reasonable certainty that a mining waste facility will result in the violation of a groundwater standard beyond the DMZ within 250 years after the facility is planned to be closed.

Currently, for metallic mining waste sites, in addition to the DMZ, DNR's rules provide for a mandatory intervention boundary that is generally 150 feet from the outer waste boundary. Under the rules, if a preventive action limit or an enforcement standard is exceeded beyond the mandatory intervention boundary, DNR must require a response by the operator.

This bill provides that DNR and an applicant for a mining permit may agree to use a mandatory intervention boundary that is a longer distance, up to 600 feet, from the outer waste boundary.

The bill also requires DNR to study whether, in connection with metallic mining, groundwater standards should apply in an aquifer containing saline (salty) water and to report its conclusions to the legislature.

SENATE BILL 3Mining waste characterization

Current law requires DNR to promulgate rules for the identification and regulation of metallic mining wastes. This bill requires DNR to adopt, in those rules, standards of the American Society for Testing and Materials for testing and other methodologies related to the evaluation of mining waste.

OCCUPATION TAX ON MINING

Under current law, the state imposes a net proceeds occupation tax on the mining of metallic minerals in this state. The tax is based, generally, on a percentage of net income from the sale of ore or minerals after certain mining processes have been applied to the ore or minerals. The tax rates are annually adjusted to reflect the change in gross national product. Gross national product, generally, measures the output generated by U.S. enterprises, regardless of whether those enterprises are located in this country.

Under this bill, instead of paying a net proceeds occupation tax based on net income, a person who is mining ferrous minerals in this state would pay a tax equal to $2,412 for each 2,240 pounds of ferrous minerals extracted from mines in this state, based on a three-year average. The tax rate would be annually adjusted to reflect the change in the gross domestic product.

Under current law, a person who intends to apply for a mining permit must make three payments of $50,000 each to the investment and local impact fund. Under the bill, a person who intends to apply for a mining permit must instead make three payments of $100,000 each to the investment and local impact fund.

Under current law, the revenue collected from the net proceeds occupation tax is deposited into the investment and local impact fund. The fund is managed by the local impact fund board (the board). The revenue is then, generally, distributed to the counties and municipalities in which metallic minerals are being mined. The bill allows the board to provide grants to units of local government to prepare economic impact studies related to sites at or near the units of local government on which exploration or prospecting is being conducted for the potential mining of ferrous minerals.

Under the bill, 70 percent of the revenue collected from the tax on extracting ferrous metallic minerals in this state, as created in the bill, is deposited into the investment and local impact fund and 30 percent of the revenue is used for a regional Wisconsin diversification program that the bill requires the Wisconsin Economic Development Corporation (WEDC) to establish. The bill authorizes WEDC to use the moneys it receives for the regional Wisconsin diversification program for the purpose of making business diversification grants or loans in coordination with appropriate units of local government to businesses that are located in close proximity to, but no more than 100 miles from, the site of a mine for ferrous metallic minerals. The bill also authorizes WEDC to use those moneys for the purpose of catastrophe abatement or response, as determined by WEDC.

15 289.27 (3) NONAPPLICABILITY. Notwithstanding sub. (2), this section does not 16 apply if a hearing on the feasibility report is conducted as a part of a hearing under 17 s. ~~293.43~~ 293.44 and the time limits, notice and hearing provisions under that section
18 supersede the time limits, notice and hearing provisions under s. 289.25 (2) and (3)
19 and this section.

20 SECTION 18. 289.29 (5) of the statutes is amended to read:

21 289.29 (5) ISSUANCE OF FINAL DETERMINATION OF FEASIBILITY IN CERTAIN
22 SITUATIONS INVOLVING UTILITIES AND MINING. If a determination of feasibility is 23 identified in the listing specified in s. 196.491 (3) (a) 3. a., the issuance of a final
24 determination of feasibility is subject to the time limit under s. 196.491 (3) (a) 3. b.
25 If a determination of feasibility is ~~required~~ covered by a hearing under s. 293.43, the

SENATE BILL 3

1 issuance of a final determination of feasibility is subject to the time limits under s.
2 293.45 (2) or 293.49, whichever is applicable.

3 SECTION 19. 289.645 (4) (g) of the statutes is created to read:

4 289.645 (4) (g) The recycling fee does not apply to prospecting or mining waste.

5 SECTION 20. 293.31 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

6 293.31 (1) Any person intending to submit an application for a prospecting or 7 mining permit shall notify the department prior to the collection of data or 8 information intended to be used to support the permit application. A person
9 intending to submit an application for a mining permit shall provide notice under 10 this subsection at least 12 months before filing that application. Specific 11 environmental data which would be pertinent to a specific prospecting or mining 12 application, but which was obtained or collected or generated prior to the notice of 13 intent to apply for a prospecting or mining permit, shall be submitted in writing to 14 the department together with any substantiating background information which 15 would assist the department in establishing the validity of the data. The department
16 shall review the data and, if it concludes that the benefits of permitting the 17 admission of the data outweigh the policy reasons for excluding it, and if the data is 18 otherwise admissible, inform the person giving the notice of intent to prospect or 19 mine that the data will be accepted by the department. Such exclusion shall not 20 relate to general environmental information such as soil characteristics, hydrologic
21 conditions and air and water data contained in publications, maps, documents,
22 studies, reports and similar sources, whether public or private, not prepared by or 23 for the applicant. Such exclusion shall likewise not relate to data which is otherwise
24 admissible that is collected prior to notification under this subsection for purposes

SENATE BILL 3

1 of evaluating another site or sites and which is not collected with intent to evade the
2 provisions of this section.

3 SECTION 21. 293.313 of the statutes is created to read:

4 293.313 Collaboration. The department shall do all of the following:

6 the processes under this subchapter.

7 (2) Work with and consult with federally recognized American Indian tribes or 8 bands in this state during the processes under this subchapter concerning proposed
9 mining in which the tribes and bands have an interest.

10 (3) Work with and provide assistance to other regulatory agencies, including 11 local, state, and federal agencies, during the processes under this subchapter related 12 to proposed mining in which the agencies have an interest.

13 (4) After the department receives a notice under s. 293.31, seek to enter into 14 a memorandum of understanding with any federal regulatory agency with 15 responsibilities related to the potential mining operation covering timelines,
16 sampling metrology, and any other issue of mutual concern related to processing an 17 application for a mining permit.

18 (5) Seek to take the lead in processes related to processing an application for 19 a mining permit that are undertaken in coordination with federal regulatory 20 agencies.

21 SECTION 22. 293.35 (5) of the statutes is amended to read:

22 293.35 (5) If the department determines that a statement under s. 1.11 is 23 required for consideration of an application for a prospecting permit to which s.
24 293.42 does not apply, the statement need not consider impacts unrelated to the

SENATE BILL 3

1 proposed prospecting activity, other than the issue of unsuitability for surface
2 mining, absent a certification under sub. (1).

3 SECTION 23. 293.37 (2) (gm) of the statutes is created to read:

4 293.37 (2) (gm) A proposed irrevocable trust agreement to provide funds for 5 activities to avoid or remedy any adverse environmental consequences from the 6 mining operation.

7 SECTION 24. 293.42 of the statutes is created to read:

8 293.42 Process for certain prospecting permit applications. If the 9 application for a prospecting permit shows that less 10,000 tons of material is 10 proposed to be excavated, all of the following apply:

11 (1) The department is not required to prepare a statement under s. 1.11 or an
12 environmental analysis for consideration of the application.

13 (2) The department shall hold a public informational hearing on the 14 application in the county where the prospecting site, or the largest portion of the 15 prospecting site, is located.

16 (3) The hearing under sub. (2), shall cover, to the fullest extent possible, all 17 other applications for approvals, licenses, and permits issued by the department that 18 are needed to conduct the prospecting. The department shall inform the applicant 19 as to the timely application date for all approvals, licenses, and permits issued by the 20 department, so as to facilitate their consideration at the hearing.
