2 relating to: increasing the rate paid to private attorneys for representing
3 indigent clients.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, the state public defender (SPD) provides legal representation for indigent persons in criminal, delinquency, and certain related cases. The SPD assigns cases either to staff attorneys or to local private attorneys. Generally, a private attorney who is assigned a case by the SPD is paid $40 per hour for time spent related to the case and $25 per hour for time spent in travel in certain situations.

This bill increases to $75 per hour the amount a private attorney is paid for time spent related to the case.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
